Hello investigator Whiteman,

Thank you for bringing to my attention the notice of a violation. I have immediately removed all social media material and in house promotional material with regards to my Wednesday Burger and Brew program. I am confused about the statute and wish to discuss the correct way to package this promotion. I absolutely never intended to violate any liquor statute and put my license and my staffs livelihood in jeopardy. I will not be offering any such promotion until such time as I have consulted with the AMCO and have a clear direction with regards to acceptable marketing. I have been operating with the highest standards in this community for over 35 years and take pride in my company's reputation. Thank you for all considerations with regards to this matter.
