TAB 2

● BOARD GOVERNANCE

9:05 am

9:05 am: Joan Wilson summarizes Dana W.’s authority - The Senate passed his appointment to the Board however got hung up in the House. However, it is Joan’s opinion that he still has full rights as a board member. Rex Leath has resigned as well. There are only four active members of the Board and for purposes of licensing decisions, etc., you only need a majority of the four so two to two votes would not get you there. But a two to one vote should one person abstain would be a submission that makes sense. If there are close calls they can cross that bridge when it comes.

● RECONSIDERATION OF SUPPORT TO APPROVE AMCO’S MOVE TO CBPL

9:10 am: Glenn Brady provides background of the proposal at the 2020 January Board meeting in Juneau. The ABC Board voted to support the change. Within the last year, there has been interference to allowing AMCO to staff themselves and fulfill their mission. There has been no resolution or mitigation. He would like to reconsider the Board’s support of this move to CBPL. Sara Erickson motions to reconsider the Board’s support. Charlie Cross seconds. Director Klinkhart provides additional background information. There is further discussion by the Board. Glenn Brady asks for any public comments. Sarah Oates, President and CEO of Alaska CHARR, states that Sara Chambers (Division Director of CBPL) gave a false statement that the industry supported this change at the 2020 January Board meeting. Industry opposes this move. Bob Klein, former ABC Board Chair, agrees that the Board should withdraw their recommendation. None opposed, motion passes.

9:45 am: Glenn Brady was not reconfirmed and will not be continuing with the ABC Board – this is his last meeting.

9:46 am: This is Sara Erickson’s last meeting as well. She is displeased with the Governor’s administration – lack of cooperation and ignorance and ignoring the needs of the industry and people of Alaska. Glenn Brady states that the Board meeting is not a forum for political discourse.

9:57 am: Dana W. asks if they need to appoint a vice chair considering Rex Leath’s resignation.

There is discussion regarding the legality of nominating a vice chair for the March meeting as well as the legality of Dana W.’s votes due to the lawsuit against Governor Dunleavy and his unconfirmed appointments to various boards. Glenn Brady nominates Charlie Cross as Vice Chair. Charlie Cross defers to legal and the need of appointing a Vice Chair now or waiting for the March 30, 2021 meeting. Joan Wilson would need to research the legality. Bob Klein speaks to Robert’s Rules. Sara Erickson chooses not to second the motion. Motion dies. There is no Vice Chair appointed.

● PUBLIC TESTIMONY

9:10 am

Based on current circumstances, the Board may decide to limit public testimony.

Public testimony is limited to issues not on this agenda and that are not proposed regulations.

10:21 am: Malan Paquette speaks about AMCO's lack of filling positions and the number of investigators in the Enforcement Unit. She asks if the investigators are certified by the Police Standards Council. She mentions that executive directors should be considered US citizens. She is concerned that AMCO is not enforcing drug free school zones by allowing alcohol and marijuana businesses advertise close to schools. She circles back to staff and AMCO's funding for said staff. Ms. Paquette says goodbye to Sara Erickson. Glenn Brady stops her public comment, which the Board is allowed to do.

10:26 am: Sarah Oates, President and CEO of Alaska CHARR, thanks the outgoing Board members for their service. A special thank you to staff and Ms. Wilson for their tireless efforts and support.

10:28 am: Jana Weltzin, with JDW Law, states that some of the comments from Ms. Paquette was uncalled for and not helpful. Ms. Weltzin speaks of the hard work and increased communication/support from AMCO's staff all during a pandemic. She would like to speak to the Director's review at the appropriate time if allowed. She additionally states that whoever is holding up any hiring positions to get out of the way, let them get business done and this office has been better than it's ever been.

3:37 pm: Director Klinkhart provides an update.

- Staffing/Resources

3:42 pm: Glenn Brady provides background on these issues. Loren Jones, Chairman of the Marijuana Control Board, is present.

● TOPICS FOR FUTURE DISCUSSION BY ABC BOARD

- Board Development

Glenn Brady mentions this is regarding education on the history of Alaska alcohol laws and regulations for board members.

- Online Licensing Portal
 - Budget discussion for a request

Director Klinkhart provides information regarding the Governor's proposed budget.

Sara Erickson says it has been a privilege to serve the State of Alaska in this capacity. It's important to get involved. It's just so easy for people to complain but she is an advocate about jumping in and creating the change that people want to see. Sometimes we feel like it's just too big and there's nothing we can do. She always tells people to start with their neighbor, bring them dinner. Make the change, be the change. It takes a strong person to be on this Board. Sara would challenge her replacement to be tough, vocal, learn quickly and fight for the public. She speaks more about her disappointment with the Governor's administration.

● DIRECTOR KLINKHART'S PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

- Previous 12 months
- Expectations for 2021

3:50 pm: Glenn Brady asks if the Director wishes to go into Executive Session to discuss his evaluation. Director Klinkhart chooses the public forum. Glenn Brady reads the draft evaluation into the record. He speaks about the communication issue with the Board earlier this summer with regard to special event permitting and that was less of a failure of the Director and more of a failure of the Chairman. He thinks they have since refined how they do things and are keeping the rest of the Board up to speed on everything that's going on. Glenn B. would like to see the Director continue to build communication with the Board, the office and the industry. Continue to work on the policy and procedure manual for the Enforcement staff. Continue to work towards filling the vacant staff positions. He says Director Klinkhart is professional, proactive, intelligent, rational and the right person in the right place at the right time.

Glenn B. opens the floor for industry and staff to comment on the Director's performance.

Sarah Oates, with CHARR, prior to Director Klinkhart there was an adversarial relationship between the industry and AMCO. She has found the Director to be extremely receptive to ideas and concerns she has brought to him. They have a standing monthly meeting and sometimes more frequent check-ins to discuss such things. She says that from having previously worked at AMCO for seven and a half years that the fact that their staff is being able to function the way that it has and to get the amount of work done and the amount of information out and hold the number of board meetings and emergency board meetings and special board meetings that they have over the past year, while having some very important and significant positions remain vacant, is remarkable. And she believes that speaks very highly, not only of the staff, but also of the current leadership. HE has made things/processes quicker while also protecting and preserving public health and safety and then trying to make some written expectations and consistency for the industry to understand and the staff to understand - in order to reduce the amount of fluctuation in interpretation and enforcement from one director or one set of board members to another.

Jana Weltzin, with JDW Law, says the more she has gotten to know him the more she realized that what he says is what he means. He has let the staff's true talents and abilities shine through which is one of the hallmarks of an effective leader. Staff is only as strong as you let them be. The industry has really seen staff develop, bloom and blossom – including Enforcement. The investigators work with the licensees and the lines of communication are more open. The industry now sees Enforcement more as a colleague and not an adversary. The Director did all this during a pandemic. She also thanks Glenn Brady and Sara Erickson for their service on the Board.

Bob Klein, former ABC Board Chair, says that Glenn Brady and Sara Erickson has done a wonderful job. Sara has embraced her role as public member with a tenacity that they have never seen. He then speaks of his 20+ years' experience with this Board and the various directors of AMCO. Director Klinkhart brought a unique background. A unique perception with his skills and his background as a detective gave him some abilities and perception that they hadn't seen before. He will take any kind of criticism as long as you back it up with facts. Bob is very happy to get to work with the Director earlier in the year.

Charlie Cross echoes the previous comments and says what the Director brings to the group is structure and the processes in a way that doesn't pin down anyone, but in fact highlights staff strengths. He is doing great work.

Dana Walukiewicz says he was impressed when the Director reached out to him before Dana's first Board meeting – just to make acquaintance. What Director Klinkhart has brought to the position, which he thinks is invaluable, is the transparency that he struggles for and that is to bring issues to the Board, so that they are well informed and can gather their opinions of the industry on the public and public safety, so they can make informed decisions. Dana says it is night and day from the previous director. He looks forward to continuing to work with him in the future and that despite the pandemic, the office is doing a lot better.

Carrie Craig states that the last year has been super challenging but under the Director's leadership it's been great. She supports and echoes Ms. Oates' and Ms. Weltzin's comments. She recalls the staff's shocked, uncertain reaction when his appointment was made at the November 2019 Board meeting. The Director made the effort right from the first day to get to know staff, understand their jobs, their goals and their wants for the office in the future. Even during Covid, the office has reached many of their goals in the last year. She is thankful he is her boss.

Glenn Brady tells the Director to keep up the good work and stay the course. He will miss working with him and he has learned a lot. He adds that the Director has enabled the staff and the Board to help move the ball forward for the betterment of the state. That's no small thing, and he will have his eternal gratitude for that.

Charlie C. motions to adopt the draft evaluation with minor technical edits. Sara E. seconds. None opposed, motion passes.
