Jason,

This is a response to her notice of violation.

Carrie,

Could you look over the response and see if she is on the right track. I spoke with her and it sounds like she is resolving the problem. Could you also reach out to her regarding the status of her temporary license to permanent. Fire Department was been there and inspected.

Mr. Hamilton, I write to inquire about the NOV that we got on 10/30/2020. The NOV states that a change in ownership took place from our LLC Hell Roaring Partners to our Scorp Hell Yeah Inc. What happened is this. We applied for our licence in the name of our LLC Hell Roaring Partners Entity # 10032055. When we secured our loan from our bank they required an S corp for the loan. So we got a Scorp Hale Yeah Inc. , 5 years later your office required that our Liquor licence and our business be in the same name. I understand that. So I applied for a business licence in the name of Hell Roaring Partners. At the request of your office. I am in the process of changing the paper work with our accountant to have our Scorp own the LLC to clear things up with the bank and for accounting purposes. I am attaching the documents to this email please advise me.

Joe, I am going to start from the beginning. We purchased and opened our business 5 years ago. Formed our LLC Hellroaring Partners entity # 10032055 on 9-10-2015 and applied for our liquor license transfer of ownership from Kings X to us. When we went to our bank to secure our loan they asked us to form an S corporation. So we did and got our business license in our corporation name. Hale Yeah Inc. entity, I see now that might have been a mistake. I renewed my license 2 years ago and all was well. This time I went to renew, I received the attached information. I needed to get the liquor license and the business license in the same name. I was instructed to do so. When I did I received the NOV from your office. I had several emails with Olivia Frank. I request a call but she is not able to talk working from home. I understand that completely. I considered a transfer of the license to the corporate name, but was again instructed that would be very difficult and time sensitive. So I changed the name on my business license to match the liquor license. I have many emails between Olivia and myself, I would really like to fix this please.

To whom it may concern

I am going to start at the beginning so you can have a clear picture of my situation and direct me to the best way to resolve this issue.

We purchased and opened our business 5 years ago. Formed our LLC Hellroaring Partners entity # 10032055 DBA Van's Dive Bar, on 9-10-2015 and applied for our liquor license transfer of ownership from the old owner to us. When we went to our bank to secure our loan, they asked us to form an S Corporation and open an account. So, we did and got our business license in our corporation name so we could open an account. Hale Yeah Inc. entity # 10032998 DBA Van's Dive Bar, so we could open our bank account. I renewed my license 2 years ago and all was well. When I applied this year, I received information asking me to have my business license and my liquor license be in the same name. When I did, I received the NOV from the enforcement division. office. I would like to know if I can get some guidance, so I do not get the NOV. I really did as I was instructed.

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are writing this letter in response to a Notice of Violation dated 2/8/21, AMCO case # 21-0104.

We apologize for not understanding the rules that we needed to follow to transfer ownership within The Channel LLC as regards our license type 212, DBA as Channel Club. We thought that since the license is owned by The Channel LLC it wouldn't make a difference since we weren't adding another member to the LLC thus requiring additional fingerprints for another member. We are a family owned LLC working hard to make a living in the current circumstances and we did not realize we were creating a problem for ourselves by not filling out the proper paperwork.

We will immediately start working on the necessary applications to correct the problem. Please accept our apology and know that we will make sure we follow the procedures if we have any changes in the future.

Sincerely,

Charles Olson and Sidney Kinney

Hi Nathan and Joe,

I have attached the Form AB-17: 2021/2022 License Renewal Application that I submitted to AMCO Board on December 4th, 2020.

This is the original, whereas the form that I was emailed back showing the violations was edited with different names and information.

I believe there was a misunderstanding with my name, Kenneth Carlton Mayo III (Secretary & Manager) and K.C. Mayo IV (President). We are two separate people, however, this mix-up has happened before so I wanted to clarify that. The edited form that I was sent back stated my middle name was Carlson, not Carlton.

The CBPL records are accurate in stating the following:

- K.C. Mayo -President
- Ian Hamilton - Vice President
- Ken Mayo -Secretary

I did mistype the Entity # on the Form AB-17:2021/2022 License Renewal App. I had written 85293 and it was actually 29858D, which was corrected on my returned form. Unfortunately the rest of the information had been edited over to past officers, Dave Andrews & Jeffrey Blair, who are no longer in those positions. I am unsure as to why these edits were made compared to my original submission. I believe the confusion and edits could be part of what made us appear to be in violation and I hope to reconcile these differences and fix any issues.

In regards to Ian Hamilton and his fingerprints, we are happy to do whatever we can to reconcile this issue and will send him to the local police department as soon as possible to get fingerprinted. I believe with the name confusion between myself and K.C. Mayo IV, that K.C. will also need to be fingerprinted.

We are setting up fingerprinting appointments for both Ian Hamilton and K.C. Mayo IV for early next week to resolve that issue and be in compliance. Once the AB-08a forms for both are complete we will email the original application packet and those included forms back to you.

Please let me know if I can provide any additional details to help fix this issue and the next steps needed to resolve all of this.

Thank you so much for your time, Kenneth Mayo III

After reading the referenced statute AS 04.11.050(a) I realize that I neglected to notify AMOC in a timely manner. All I can say at this point is that the oversight was not an intentional act. I would ask for the Boards forgiveness in this matter. I have printed the statute and included it in the folder with change of corporate officer instructions.

Regarding the Notice of Violation for the American Legion Post #57, License #3020.

We respectfully acknowledge that we have received this notice and will in the future notify AMCO of any officer changes within our organization. Our Officers and Board of Directors, as well as our Office Manager have been informed of this situation, so this does not happen again.

With the pandemic going on we never elected our officers in a timely manner last year, and consequently caused this oversight. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

This is response regards notice of violation case # 20-0172 letter I received today via usps mail.

I found out there was a problem last week and I am trying to serve the problem.

At the beginning my accountant was helping me on renewal and looks like it didn't work out.

My accountant told me it's okay to report the changes when renewal.

So far Nathan Hall told me to reverse back the changes of ownership, so I did faxed it over to Juneau office with payment on Tuesday February 16th.

And sent email to Nathan Hall today for further instructions.

Please let me know what else need to be done since this is my first time doing this.

No, I don't need your previous change of ownership documents from Corporations, Business, & Professional Licensing (CBPL). I need the change of officials paperwork that will be submitted to CBPL to revert the ownership back to what it was. You will also need to provide proof that the change of officials document was received by CBPL (fax confirmation or CBPL date received stamp).

You'll need to correct the renewal application as well. All documents need to be submitted at the same time, preferably in one e-mail. You will need to submit a transfer application once the renewal application is complete.

Your current license expires 2/28. You will be given a temporary license once your renewal application is complete.

Olivia,

From what I gather what you are looking for is a filing with SOA corporations on the change in ownership? Is there something else needed? The letter says that any application not complete by 2/28 will be expired but the board meeting isn't until March. Does that mean our license will be revoked during the time in between? As I'm sure you are fully aware the pandemic has obliterated our revenue and we cannot afford to close down because of a clerical oversight. We are struggling to make it through the winter as it is. Your help is appreciated.
