TAB 4

Request to begin operations on May 1, 2021.

Dana Walukiewicz summarizes the memo.

Glen Klinkhart adds more info regarding that the board will see more of these requests coming up as people deal with probate and other issues.

Dana mentions that there is a current regulations project about death of a licensee. States that in the past the board has allowed some leeway to allow for the process to go through the court process. Sherman Ernouf, attorney, on the phone for the licensee and the estate. He states that luckily, in this case, they have been through probate the personal representative has been appointed, and Mr. Curtis is the personal representative – son of the deceased. He just wants to begin operations in May. There is a transfer that will be filed within the next few weeks. They are well on their way, they just needed permission for the personal representative to operate the license.

TAB 5

Request to begin operations on May 1, 2021.

Dana Walukiewicz summarizes the memo.

Sherman Ernouf, attorney for the licensee and the estate, on the phone. He states daughter of the deceased has been appointed personal representative of the estate. He states the license is seasonal and very important for them to begin operating May 1. They are all in order and a transfer is being advertised and should be filed shortly but they need to be in operation May 1 and that what they are asking.

Joan Wilson asks if the deceased is the sole member of the corporation. Shermans states yes.

3/31/2020 – Selling bottles of alcohol for off premises consumption

Dana Walukiewicz summarizes the issue.

Glen Klinkhart provides further information from memo. He states the violations are a bit more serious than just a lack of server card.

No one on the line from the establishment.

More discussion around the issue of selling bottles of alcohol for off premises consumption but also in general. Joan Wilson suggests to approve the renewal application with delegation but also suggests an accusation. Dana Walukiewicz provides information on the violation being seen by the board before and the concerns around issuing an accusation because of that. More discussion.
