In early May, 2021, Inv. Hamilton spoke with you regarding your restaurant designation permit (RDP). The permit was issued in error since you provide entertainment in your establishment. Licensee V. Roderick was unsure as to whether he wanted to keep the RDP or turn it in and keep the entertainment. He was given until May 15, 2021 to decide what he was going to do. On or about 5-17-21, Inv. Hamilton left you a voice mail and an e-mail requesting what you had decided to do. Several attempts to locate your establishment open during work hours has met with negative results to discuss the RDP. As of 5-24-21, you have failed to notify AMCO what you want to do with the status of your RDP.

On 5-25-21, a walk through was conducted at your establishment. The mandatory $1,500.00 Civil Penalty sign was posted at the service counter. Over half the sign was obscured with product for sale. I advised the female clerk that it needed to be posted at the entrance facing out so the public could see as they entered. She said they had a sign at the entrance. It was posted above at least an eight foot high door, facing inside. The only way you could see the sign is if you were leaving and looking up. When I returned about 45 minutes later, some one had removed the product that was blocking the Civil Penalty sign. I retrieved two new civil penalty signs and placed one where they need to post it, advised the person who seemed to be in charge and left her an extra. The same issue was identified during an inspection on 8-28-19, and 7-9-20.

As a reminder, not posting required ssign-age could result in a $100.00 a day fine.

Yes, the signage is still in the correct spot and we have talked to our employees about not moving them. If it's ok to put stickie notes on the back of the signs with instructions to not move them, I'd like to do that too.

Thanks!

Ms Hershock,

I am quite confident the person I spoke with last year misunderstood where the sign could go. I am a stickler about where this sign can be posted and inform everyone that the sign has to be seen as you are entering the establishment. Not above the door on the inside.

If I recall the sea bean as you enter there is a support post about maybe 15 feet into the premises. The service station is toward the back on the left. I would have told who I talked with that the two other signs could be put on or near the service counter and that the $1500 sign could be posted on the post or window pane of door facing out or in one of the side windows. I do recall leaving two 1500 signs at an establishment to have them put one in the window on each side of the door.

Please remove the sign from its current location and place it so it can be seen as you enter the establishment.

Than you

Inv Hamilton

Hello,

We received a notice of Violation that I was hoping we could respond to via email? The case #20-0716, for the Sea Bean, license 5399.

The letter states that when Investigator Hamilton walked though on July 9, the $1500 civic penalty sign was missing from the front entrance. The sign actually is up, and has been in its present location since last fall when another inspector came through and helped us install the signs. It's above the door, so maybe he didn't see it? I'm attaching a photo.

I hope this email suffices- if I need to mail a response, could you please let me know?

Re: NOV issued May 26, 2021
Klondike's Pizzeria, LLC

Dear Investigator Hamilton:

This letter is in response to the NOV issued to my client, Klondike's Pizzeria, on May 26, 2021.

Seasalt Bar and Grill, like many Alaska hospitality businesses, has reopened in stages and has suffered from low staffing and frequent staff turnover. The employee instructed by you in August of 2020, Chip Duggan, is no longer with the business. Mr. Duggan did not pass your verbal warning along to ownership. He did not take care of installing the signage left by you so the ownership was unaware that there was an issue. As reflected in your NOV, it is not that there were no signs, it was that one sign was missing and you indicate that the other signs that were posted had been "shrunk" to 8 inches by 10 inches.

The restaurant has corrected the signage issues identified in the NOV. The new staff has also been instructed that the signage must remain true to size. The ownership of the restaurant is motivated to comply with signage requirements and all AMCO regulations.

Undersigned counsel is scheduled to visit the restaurant on July 9, 2021. At that time, I will personally check the signage and provide additional reassurance to you that it is correct.

Respectfully,

THE LAW OFFICE OF BRADLY A. CARLSON, L.L.C.
ATTORNEYS FOR KLONDIKE'S PIZZERIA

To whom it may concern,

My name is Darrel Oliver and I manage AJ's Oldtown Steakhouse in Homer, Alaska. As the manager here, one of my principal duties is to make sure my staff are fully licensed and TAP certified. After our reopening for COVID, I opened our notebook and made sure we were compliant. There was one thing I forgot...MY card!!! I am very embarrassed and humiliated at this violation. I have registered with CHARR, and will take the class next week. For a guy that took the first TAM class in 1986, my card never expired. I apologized to my employer and my staff, and to you. Thank you for your time,

Respectfully yours,

Darrel Oliver

I received a notice of violation regarding our a warning sign at our front door and one of my managers, Mr. Darrel Oliver's expired TAP card. It expired during our covid shutdown on May 9, 2020. I reached out to Officer Hamilton to receive an extension to provide the required information until July 1st in order to have Mr. Darrel and another new staff member take the renewal cours.

It is my understanding from reviewing AS 04.21.065, that it is my responsibility to provide this signage at my door and a missing sign can result in a $100 per day fine. I appreciate that Officer Hamilton provided us one immediately. I also understand that under AS 04.21.025 that it is also my responsibility that our servers and bartenders maintain unexpired alcohol server education TAPS cards.

ACTION TAKEN TO PREVENT REOCCURANCE:

Mr. Oliver attended the TAPS renewal course today and renewed his certificate. In the future, I will ensure that all servers and bartenders maintain their TAPS education. I appreciate the ability to now do this online.

We will maintain signage as required.

Sincerely,

Adrienne Sweeney

On 6-25-21, at approximately 2300 hours, Investigator Whiteman and Hamilton conducted a check of all server cards of persons working at your establishment. Contact was made with server Quentin McAllister Foley who was asked how long he worked at the establishment to which he replied a couple weeks. When asked to provide proof of server education he stated he had taken the class on line but has not received his card yet. He was advised about the municipal ordinance regarding serving and told to stop serving until he could provide proof of server education to a Board representative. On 6-28-21, Hamilton contacted State CHARR and learned that they had no record of Foley in their system.
