Global restaurateur Host International, Inc. ("Host") is a world leader in creating dining for travel venues. Host operates in more than 100 airports around the globe, including the 20 busiest airports in North America.

In order to encourage tourism, Host brings the freshest ingredients right from the local area, into Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport with Norton Sound Seafood House, a Host original concept that was designed specifically for the airport with contributions to the menu from Alaska's celebrity chef, Al Levinson.

Norton Sound Seafood House serves up local seafood; it is your last chance for Alaskan salmon and halibut fresh in season, before boarding. It is located pre and post-security with a comfortable and contemporary atmosphere. Our pre-security location is ideal to have a farewell meal with visitors before they have to go through security. It is a great place for patrons to enjoy some Alaskan fare before their flight. Halibut and salmon can be ordered blackened or grilled. The most popular item on the menu is the Halibut and Chips. All are favorites with most tourists.

Norton Sound Seafood House also embraces the finest in local brewing, and offers an array of top shelf and signature cocktails. Norton Sound Seafood House provides travelers a taste of what the region has to offer.

Currently, no additional amenities are offered, however, in order to attract more tourism, Norton Sound Seafood House and Alaska National Wildlife partnered together to hang a full size float plane above the restaurant.
