Dear AMCO Board,

10/21/26

In this letter, I will go over some Howling Dog Salon history, status and future plans. The Dog started in Ester, burned down, rebuilt and then moved to Fox in about 1978. I have been a customer since the Ester days. My good friend Jim Lyle talked me into a partnership for the Dog in 2003. In 2008, due to some family issues, I bought Jim out of his share in the business. I have owned and managed The Dog since then. The Dog as continued to be a community center for the people of Fox. We met there got neighborhood meetings, snow removal, flood control, trail committees, etc.... We've ran many fundraisers over the years to give back t the community.

In 2020, a young man who was texting and driving, turned into me on my motorcycle. No turn signal – "didn't see me". Totaled out the bike and me. Broke my sternum, most of my right ribs and some left, messed up my right hand, knee and foot. The damage to the right quadrant of my brain is by far the worst outcome of this injury. I've had seizures and been hospitalized many times since. Thankfully since 2024, the seizures have stopped due to the anti-seizure pill. Though I still experience debilitating headaches. I still can't lift heavy objects. My speech, memory and brain function are a lot slower these days, which makes running the bar obsolete.

Since the seizure stopped in 2024, I have been working on getting the land the bar sits on subdivided. This has brought many difficulties, but it was ultimately approved this summer (Summer 2026). Now that it is subdivided, I plan to sell the bar and cabins but keep the remaining 3 acres. Now that this is completed and hopefully the approval of the fourth waiver, the plans would be to sell the bar in the spring of 2027. I have many interested parties in buying The Dog with the intention to keep the same traditions alive.

Since having so many medical issues and not being able to operate the bar, which has been my only income for so long, I do not have the funds to pay the 4th waiver and would really appreciate it being waived. As you can imagine, I've suffered massive amounts of medical debts that has eaten away at my savings.

I appreciate any and all considerations at granting the 4th waiver and keep the license with the Howling Dog.
