AMCO Case #: AM 26-2586

This is a notice to you as licensee that an alleged violation has occurred. If the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board decides to act against your license, under the provisions of AS 44.62.330 - AS 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedures Act) you will receive an Accusation and Notice of your right to an Administrative Hearing.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 10/06/2026 AMCO Investigator Linger entered your establishment to conduct a routine inspection. Investigator Linger requested employee, Stuart Wood, to show his ID and alcohol server education card. Stuart provided ID and a CHARR certificate that was issued in July of 2023. These certificates are only good for 14 days and the TAPS card is only good for 3 years, which would have expired in July of 2026. Stuart was the only server working during the inspection. Stuart has been employed for more than 30 days.

This is in violation of: AS 04.21.025. Alcohol server education course(a)(c), 3 AAC 305.700. Alcohol server education course(a), AS 04.16.150. Licensee responsible for violations.

AS 04.21.025(a) Except as provided under (e) and (f) of this section, as a condition of issuance or renewal of a license or conditional contractor's permit and selling alcoholic beverages under a license or conditional contractor's permit, the board shall require a licensee or permittee who sells or serves alcoholic beverages and a licensee's or permittee's agents and employees who sell or serve alcoholic beverages or check the identification of a patron to complete an alcohol server education course approved by the board. (c) A licensee, permittee, agent, or employee shall complete the course required under (a) of this section and pass a written test, online or in person, demonstrating an understanding of the course subjects not more than 30 days after being licensed, permitted, or employed. The course provider shall issue a card to each individual who completes the course and passes the written test. A card issued under this subsection is valid for three years from the date of issue. A licensee, permittee, agent, or employee may renew a card issued under this section; to renew the card, the licensee, permittee, agent, or employee must pass a written test demonstrating an understanding of the course subjects. Notwithstanding the 30-day period 95 for completing the course and passing the written test under this subsection, a person may not sell or serve alcoholic beverages or check the identification of a patron at a permitted event under AS 04.09.600 - 04.09.690 unless the person possesses a valid card issued before the event.

3 AAC 305.700. Alcohol server education course. (a) Unless exempt under AS 04.21.025(f), a licensee, employee, or agent of a licensee selling or serving alcoholic beverages shall successfully complete an alcohol server education course. The person or the on duty supervisor shall carry or have available to show current course cards or photocopies of the cards certifying completion of an approved alcohol server education course. The card is effective for three years from the date of issuance during which time the person shall complete another approved course or successfully complete a written test demonstrating an understanding of the course subjects as required by AS 04.21.025(c). The card must include the name and date of birth of the card holder, the name of the course, and the date of expiration of the card. If the card does not include a photograph of the holder, the person shall also carry a valid identification under 3 AAC 305.800(b). The card or a photocopy of the card must be shown upon request of a peace officer or board representative. If the person cannot show a current card or a copy of it on file on the premises or show a date of hire less than 30 days earlier, the person shall immediately cease selling or serving alcoholic beverages or checking identification.

AS 04.16.150. Licensee responsible for violations. (a) A licensee may neither knowingly allow agents or employees to violate this title or regulations adopted under this title nor recklessly or with criminal negligence fail to act in accordance with the duty prescribed under AS 04.21.030 with the result that an agent or employee of the licensee violates a law or regulation.
(b) Except as provided under AS 04.16.030(f) and 04.16.052(e), a licensee who knowingly violates (a) of this section commits the offense of failure to ensure compliance.
(c) Failure to ensure compliance is a violation.

AMCO Case# AM 26-2586

I am writing in response to the notice of violation given to The Narrows bar in Juneau Alaska.

Stuart Wood had presented an out of date TAPS card. Stuart had not kept track of his renewal date and somehow our records had the wrong date. We pulled Stuart from working until he renewed his TAPS card and have found an online system to track certifications and give us alerts when someone needs to renew.

On 8-11-26, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. The only server on duty was Steve Yim. He was asked to provide proof of server education to which he did not have. He had been helping out a friend for the past two months and "didn't have time to get it". Mr. Yim was told to stop serving alcoholic beverages until he could provide proof of server education to an Alcoholic Beverage Control Board representative. Mr. Yim was issued a citation with a fine of $270.00.

Notice of Violation

(3AAC 305.870)

This form, all information provided and responses are public documents per Alaska Public Records Act AS 40.25

Date: 2/20/24

License #/Type: 434 Beverage Dispensary

Licensee: Ulber Ferati

Address: 2502 McRae Rd., Anchorage, AK

DBA: Fiori D'Italia

AMCO Case #: 23-1426

An administrative notice of violation addresses serious or repetitive violations of AS 04, 3 AAC 305, or other law relating to the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages that have occurred or are occurring on the licensed premises.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 7-20-23, AMCO received information asserting that Ylli Ferati, bartender at your establishment and your son, sold an unopened 750ml bottle of Rabbit Hole Cavehill whiskey to a customer for off-premises consumption. The sale occurred on 7-14-23 and the amount charged was $70. Ylli does not dispute that the transaction took place on the Beverage Dispensary licensed premises. He also does not dispute it was unlawful to do so. Following a request for production of records, a review of October 23 guest receipts revealed a suspect transaction for $150. The order for the transaction stated it was for a Tomahawk Dinner and was identified as a food purchase, not an alcoholic beverage purchase. A Tomahawk Dinner is not on Fiori D'Italia's pre-printed menu. Nor is it a known special. AMCO contacted the patron who was billed for the Tomahawk Dinner. He stated he did have dinner at the establishment and that he also bought a bottle of "their" brand, which he took with him unopened when he left. Within ten minutes, the customer called the investigator back and stated that the $150 was for a whiskey tasting event, not a take-home purchase that evening.

Your attention is directed to
AS 04.16.170 crime of sale of alcoholic beverages from or to an unlicensed person, a Class A misdemeanor
AS 04.16.1.030: Responsibility of licensees, employees, and agents and
AS 04.16.150: Licensee responsible for violations

Whether a request for an appearance is made, a licensee, endorsement holder, affiliate, or conditional contractor permittee shall respond in writing to the notice of violation within 10 days of receipt of this notice. A licensee, endorsement holder, any affiliate, or conditional contractor permittee who receives an administrative notice of violation may also request an appearance before the director regarding the administrative notice of violation. The request must be made not more than 10 days after the licensee, endorsement holder, or conditional contractor permittee receives the notice. The director shall grant an appearance not more than10 days after the request is received.

AMCO Case #23-1426

Mr. J. Hamilton,

This letter is in response to your letter, which I received on Monday, March 11th, 2024, regarding AMCO Case #23-1426.

I understand the seriousness of your investigation and I do not take this lightly. Therefore, given the omission of information in your notice, your investigation conducted to date, and how you have framed your notice, I'm requesting an appearance before the director, Ms. Joan Wilson, regarding this administrative notice of violation. There are a number of items I'd like to clarify with the director. Per your letter, I understand that my request must be granted not more than 10 days after this request is received. I'd ask the director to please schedule this meeting on a Monday or a Tuesday as those are the days my restaurant is closed. If this cannot be accommodated, I'd ask for an early morning meeting as my restaurant opens at 4pm but requires hours of prep work by me.

During your initial investigation visit to my restaurant, you made several claims against my business. As I noted to you then, I do not sell unopened or opened bottles at Fiori for off-premise consumption. In fact, during your initial investigation visit to my restaurant, my wife pointed out that you had recently dined at our restaurant with a guest. Your guest tried to purchase the bottle of alcohol that was used to make his cocktail and take home with him at the end of dinner. My wife told your guest no (in your presence). When my wife recounted this interaction, you told her "you have a good memory". My wife further questioned if AMCO still conducts "sting operations" and you told her no. My wife and I were both confused as the interaction she described with you and your guest seems like a sting operation, especially if the guest of an AMCO investigator is clearly asking something that is not allowed.

Nonetheless, I've provided initial responses to statements made in your notice.

Statement #1: On 7-20-23, AMCO received information asserting that Ylli Ferati, bartender at your establishment and your son, sold an unopened 750ml bottle of Rabbit Hole Cavehill whiskey to a customer for off-premises consumption.

Ylli is an employee of Fiori D'Italia. I'm not sure I understand the relevance of "and your son" in your letter. My employees at Fiori are held to the same standards, regardless of familial status. Fiori is a business I have built alongside my wife so we treat our employees as professionals of Fiori.

I understand that the information AMCO received was from a guest check for Jim Arlington. Mr. Arlington, at the time you received your information, was Business Development and Marketing Director for Afognak/Brown Jug. Afognak is the owner of Brown Jug, the largest liquor store in Alaska. It should be noted that Ylli is a partial owner of Allocated, a liquor store in Anchorage. It's fair to say these two businesses are competitors.

Statement #2: The sale occurred on 7-14-23 and the amount charged was $74.99. Ylli does not dispute that the transaction took place on the Beverage Dispensary licensed premises. He also does not dispute it was unlawful to do so.

It's my understanding that Mr. Arlington purchased the bottle through Ylli's liquor store as demonstrated by the Allocated sales receipt Ylli provided me post your initial investigation visit. Further, I understand that on 7-14-23, Mr. Arlington received his bottle at my premise after his dinner. Per Ylli, I understand that Mr. Arlington noted to Ylli that he did not have cash for the bottle and insisted Ylli charge a credit card instead. Additionally, it's my understanding that Ylli pulled $75 from the Fiori petty cash drawer at the end of the night to reimburse his liquor store. This was a mistake, as this is not permitted, and a lapse in judgement on Ylli's part to charge the $74.99 on Fiori's credit card machine. During your initial investigation visit, you asked Ylli and myself if there was a motivation for Mr. Arlington's actions – we provided you answers. I'd like to provide additional information to the AMCO director on why Mr. Arlington targeted my employee and my business.

Nonetheless, post your initial investigation visit, I've added additional controls, such as removing the ability for employees to access petty cash, walking through large dollar amounts on tickets at the end of the night with staff, and additional trainings with my staff.

Statement #3: Following a request for production of records, a review of the October 23 guest receipts revealed a suspect transaction for $150. The order for the transaction stated it was for a Tomahawk Dinner and was identified as a food purchase, not an alcoholic beverage purchase. A Tomahawk Dinner is not on Fiori D'Italia's pre-printed menu. Nor is it a known special.

Post your review of ~two years worth of my previous records, you asked me multiple questions with regards to me selling Tomahawk steaks at Fiori. As I noted to you during your questioning, I've sold Tomahawk steaks in my restaurant as a special for years. Please see attached to this letter years of social media posts of my Tomahawk steaks. As such, I respectfully disagree with your assertion "nor is it a known special". This is a popular and known special when I make it available at my restaurant. Additionally, you questioned how I price my Tomahawk steaks, and I noted to you that I price them based on weight, attributes such as how 'aged' the steak is, and sides included with the steak. You noted this seemed odd even though this is a restaurant standard, and further, there are restaurants in Anchorage that charge "market price" for their steaks, meaning the price of a steak can fluctuate on any given day.

Statement #4: AMCO contacted the patron who was billed for the Tomahawk Dinner. He stated he did have dinner at the establishment and that he also bought a bottle of "their brand", which he took with him unopened when he left. Within ten minutes, the customer called the investigator back and stated the $150 was for a whiskey tasking event, not a take-home purchase that evening.

With regards to the specific review of the October 23 receipt, there is misinformation on what was drafted as your finding. The $150 was for a dinner event. The patron you mention is willing to 'testify' to clarify any information. Please see attached to this letter a time stamped picture of the patron at the dinner event.

Further, it's my understanding the patron has never left Fiori's premises with an unopened bottle. The patron has stated that when he was contacted by AMCO, your investigator was not clear to say 'Fiori, the restaurant', or 'Ylli's liquor store, Allocated'. Again, Ylli is an employee of Fiori and is a partial owner of Allocated – my customers frequently associate the two with each other. Additionally, I hold events in partnership with Allocated.

Mr. Hamilton, I hope the above provides further clarity into your investigation. I'd like to reiterate some of the comments I made to you during your initial investigation visit. I've been a restaurant owner and licensee in Anchorage for over 30 years. In those 30+ years, I've had zero infractions on my license. Since 1995, Fiori has been in Spenard – a neighborhood that has, unfortunately, been synonymous with crime. However, I've done my part to make Fiori a positive – not only for the Spenard community – but the Anchorage community as well. In fact, I implore you to seek Anchorage Police Department complaint records – you will not find anything alcohol-related with regards to Fiori.

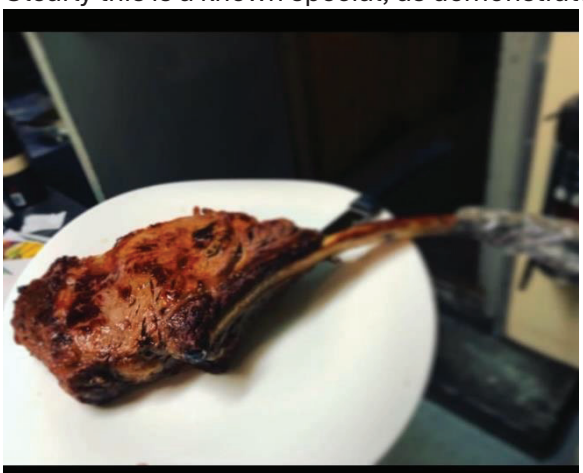

Lastly, since you've launched your investigation, I've experienced increased levels of harassment towards my business, including, but not limited to:

- A patron, in front of other customers at my bar, mockingly asserting "I hear AMCO is investigating you, [redacted name – to be discussed with AMCO director] tells me"
- Ylli having lunch at a restaurant in Anchorage and the individual sitting next to him smirking "I hear you are having troubles with AMCO. [redacted name – to be discussed with AMCO director] is proud that he was able to set you up and get AMCO to initiate an investigation"

I'm looking forward to meeting with the AMCO director to discuss this matter and provide further information outside this letter.

Regards,
Ulber Ferati

I am responding to The Notice of Violation dated 10/13/2026.

I understand that, immediately after the incident, the employee sent the document in question to the appropriate authority.

I have instructed all servers and bartenders that it is imperative that they have the alcohol server education card on their person or on file with the manager. I assume a photo in a persons phone would be adequate also.

We will periodically review all employees for adherence to have a current card.

Sincerely,

Frederick Kasnick- President

I replied earlier with copy of server training that we did not receive in time for the first notice of violation. I thought Greg was taking care of the license as he said he was taking it to the court house in Nenana. I will submit it with the copy of the server training.

Dear AMCO Enforcement:

I am writing on behalf of Creekbend Company, LLC in response to the October 13, 2026 Notice of Violation concerning our employment of an individual under the age of 21 at Coldwater Market.

When Alaska's alcohol laws were revised, we mistakenly understood that the changes allowing individuals 18 years of age and older to work in certain licensed establishments also applied to our package store. The employee had obtained her alcohol server education card, and we believed that she was legally permitted to work at Coldwater Market. We did not realize that package stores were subject to different age restrictions. This was an honest misunderstanding of the law, not an intentional disregard of our responsibilities as a licensee. Once the issue was brought to our attention, we fully cooperated with the AMCO investigator, provided the requested employment records, and promptly paid both citations totaling $1,040. We understood that payment resolved the citations, although we recognize that AMCO's administrative process is separate.

We take our responsibilities as a licensee seriously and understand that it is our obligation to know and follow the regulations applicable to each of our licenses. We now understand the age restrictions applicable to package stores and will ensure that our hiring and staffing practices comply with those requirements moving forward. We have learned from this experience and are committed to making sure it does not happen again. We have made a genuine effort to operate our businesses responsibly, and when this mistake was identified, we did not dispute the citations or attempt to avoid responsibility. We cooperated, paid the fines, and took the matter seriously.

Given the circumstances, our cooperation, the payment of the citations, and our otherwise clean disciplinary history, I respectfully request that AMCO consider this matter resolved without recommending any additional administrative disciplinary action against our package store license.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

If the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board decides to act against your license, under the provisions of AS 44.62.330 - AS 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedures Act) you will receive an Accusation and Notice of your right to an Administrative Hearing.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 10-7-26, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. On duty personnel were asked to provide proof of alcohol server education. Manager Jimmy Johnson admitted his server card has been expired for at least the last 6 months and that he has been serving alcoholic beverages during that time, to include serving a beer to a customer just prior to my entry to the location. Mr. Johnson stated he was told by the licensee to get the training but he and the licensee did not follow up. Mr. Johnson was issued a citation for no server education, total fine $270.00. This is the second time in a year different persons from this establishment have been cited for this violation.

Your attention is directed to AS 04.21.025: Alcohol server education and AS 04.16.150: Licensee responsible for violations

AS 04.16.150: Licensee responsible for violations could result in a $270.00 fine; both above violations could result in further administrative action by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board which include but not limited to additional fines, suspension or both and ultimately, revocation.

Re: Notice of Violation: The Duck Inn

AMCO Case #: 26-0542

Dear Director Richard and Enforcement Staff:

Please be advised that this firm has been retained by The Duck Inn, Inc. As such, respectfully accept this as the written response to the Notice of Violation (NOV) issued July 27, 2026, pursuant 3 AAC 305.870.

We acknowledge receipt of the NOV and the underlying facts concerning employment of eight individuals ages 16 and 17 between approximately April 1, 2024, and May 31, 2026. We take these matters with the utmost seriousness. The Duck Inn has no prior disciplinary history with the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board within the three years of the current licensee's ownership, and we are committed to full compliance with Title 4 and related Department of Labor and Workforce Development (DOLWD) requirements going forward.

From the outset of Investigator J. Hamilton's April 15, 2026, inspection through the May 19, 2026, production letter and subsequent document production, my client has fully and completely cooperated. When employees were unable to produce permits on-site during the inspection, management was instructed to (and did) gather and transmit all available records as promptly as possible. We provided the detailed employment chronology (including ages at hire, start/stop dates, parental/guardian signature dates on permit applications, days/weeks worked, and the aggregate total of 230 days) that forms the basis of the NOV. We have and will remain available and responsive to any further requests.

My client has used this unfortunate situation as an impetus to not only correct their operational practices, but to also re-educate themselves on the governing law. The Duck Inn operates as a long-standing family-owned motel with café and lounge under a Beverage Dispensary–Tourism license and therefore falls squarely within the hotel/motel category contemplated by AS 04.16.049(c). None of the minors performed duties involving the service, mixing, delivery, or dispensing of alcoholic beverages. In every instance, the minor's parent or guardian was fully aware the minor was working at The Duck Inn and provided written consent (as reflected in the signed permit applications).

The violations arose from timing and process failures: in several cases the parental signature or formal DOLWD approval occurred after the minor had already begun work, or approved permits were not immediately available on the premises for inspection. We accept responsibility for these administrative lapses. They were not intentional, did not involve any underage service or consumption of alcohol, and did not result from any disregard for the safety or well-being of the young employees.

Immediately upon learning of the issues, The Duck Inn undertook the following concrete steps:

- Comprehensive re-education of ownership, management, and supervisory staff on AS 04.16.049, AS 23.10.355, 8 AAC 05.045, the DOLWD work-permit form and process, and the specific requirements applicable to hotel/motel/restaurant employment of 16- and 17-year-olds.
- All relevant managers have reviewed the current statutes, the DOLWD "Summary of Alaska Child Labor Law," and the official work-permit instructions.
- Adoption of a formal written Minor Employment Policy (effective immediately and incorporated into our employee handbook and hiring checklist). Key provisions include: No person under 18 may begin work in any capacity until an approved DOLWD work permit is physically received and verified.
- Mandatory pre-hire checklist: age verification (copy of proof of age retained), written parental/guardian consent, completion and submission of the full work-permit application (including alcohol-license disclosure), and confirmation of non-alcohol-service duties only.

- Designation of a single responsible manager to track permit status, maintain an on-premises binder of all active minor permits, and conduct quarterly internal audits.
- Explicit prohibition on any minor handling alcoholic beverages in any way.
- Immediate termination of employment and notification to DOLWD if a permit is revoked or expires.
- Training for all supervisors on the policy before any future minor is considered for hire.
- All current and future minor employees (if any) will have their approved permits available on the premises at all times for inspection. We have ceased any informal or provisional starts pending approval

The measures implemented by my client will ensure that the administrative gaps that produced the 230 identified days without a valid permit cannot recur. We view the employment of responsible local young people (with full parental knowledge and consent) as a positive contribution to our community when done in strict compliance with the law; the new policy guarantees that compliance.

The Duck Inn has operated under this license for over three years with no prior Title 4 disciplinary history. We take our responsibilities as a licensee extremely seriously and regret the process shortcomings that led to this NOV. We have already implemented the corrective actions described above and stand ready to provide any additional documentation, appear before the Director pursuant to 3 AAC 305.870(d), or meet with Investigator Hamilton or Board staff at any time to discuss these matters further.

We appreciate the opportunity to demonstrate our commitment to full compliance and look forward to resolving this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

By: s/ W. Sherman Ernouf

Hello,
I have a question regarding my need for TAPS certificate. I no longer serve. I am a cook, manager and junior partner (25%) of Boonchoo, Inc. My mother is majority owner (75%), manager, and has a current TAPS certificate. Am I required to have a TAPS certificate? My friend read the statute for me (my English not perfect) and he thinks I will need the certificate. Please confirm he is correct, and I will sign up for the course. I apologize for delay, but I wasn't quite sure why I was required because I don't serve any longer.

Regarding a 17 year old employee, his name is Austin Brown. An individual work permitted was submitted for him to AK Dept. of Labor on August 17, 2026.

Thank you

Notice of Violation

(3AAC 305.870)

This form, all information provided and responses are public documents per Alaska Public Records ACT AS 40.25

Date: 8/28/26

License #/Type: 4325 Beverage Dispensary

Licensee: Ocean Enterprises of Alaska, Inc.

Address: 516 E Marine Way, Kodiak, AK

DBA: Kodiak Hana Restaurant

AMCO Case #: 26-1051

This is a notice to you as licensee that an alleged violation has occurred. If the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board decides to act against your license, under the provisions of AS 44.62.330 - AS 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedures Act) you will receive an Accusation and Notice of your right to an Administrative Hearing.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 5-27-26, an inspection was conducted at your establishment. It was learned that you employ 16 and 17 year olds. At the time of the inspection, you could not produce proof of work permits and were asked to provide them by 5-29-26. On 5-29-26, I contacted the Dept. of Labor (DOL), Inv. B. Weimer, who stated they do not have any work permits for your establishment on file. On 6-16-26, I asked informally for a list of youths working. On 6-18-26, at the establishments request, I clarified the documents I was looking for. On 7-14-26, a letter for production of records was signed by the AMCO Director and sent to the establishment. On or about 7-25-28, the establishment requested an extension to compile the information requested which was granted. Documents revealed from 5-27-24 to 8-9-26, eleven under 18 year olds were employed without a valid DOL Work Permit. One of the 11 youths was 15 years old when hired. During that time frame, a total of 1400 violations occurred. Since the inspection, the licensee has provided two valid work permits, one for R.M. and one for M. N.

on 4-28-26 an inspection was conducted at your establishment. The establishment was provided with new statutory required signs and their placement was discussed. On 7-28-26, I returned to the establishment and noticed the $1,500 penalty sign was not posted at the entrance. Counter personnel had recognized me and I again advised them about moving the sign. After returning to the office, Inv. J. Bankowski received a phone call from your personnel. He provided them with the statutory language and the conversation was terminated. On 9-28-26, I went back to the establishment and the sign was still not posted. I again told the desk personnel who pointed toward the back of the establishment and asked if that was "okay". From the entrance the sign could not be see. I again advised them of the proper placement and left. Later, a citation was issued with a $120.00 fine.

Re: TJMN, LLC dba House of Fire Pizza
License Number 6074 – Restaurant/Eating Place
AMCO Case No. 26-2054
Response to August 18, 2026 Notice of Violation

Dear Members of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board:

Our office represents TJMN, LLC d/b/a House of Fire Pizza ("House of Fire") regarding the Notice of Violation dated August 18, 2026, concerning License No. 6074.

House of Fire acknowledges that Jalen Ludecker had been employed for more than 30 days and had not completed an approved alcohol server education course at the time of AMCO's August 10, 2026 inspection. House of Fire does not dispute the violation and takes its obligations under Title 4 seriously. House of Fire has an existing policy requiring employees age 18 and older to obtain alcohol server education certification. That requirement is communicated to employees as part of the hiring and onboarding process. Historically, employee credentials, including TAPS certifications, were collected and maintained as part of House of Fire's administrative onboarding process.

In this instance, however, there was a breakdown in the verification process. Although the training requirement existed, management did not have an adequate mechanism to independently confirm that Mr. Ludecker had actually completed the required training before he was assigned alcohol-related duties. House of Fire recognizes that responsibility for compliance ultimately rests with the licensee and has taken steps to correct that gap. Following the inspection, Mr. Ludecker was immediately instructed not to perform alcohol-related duties until he completes the required training. Mr. Ludecker has since completed an approved alcohol server education course and obtained his current TAPS card. House of Fire has verified his certification and will maintain a copy of his TAPS card in its employee compliance records.

House of Fire has also reviewed its broader process for verifying and tracking employee certifications. Going forward, management will maintain its own centralized TAPS compliance record identifying each employee's certification status and expiration date. Certification status will also be communicated to personnel responsible for scheduling so that an employee without verified current certification is not inadvertently assigned duties requiring alcohol server education.

In addition, House of Fire is implementing a new Alcohol Server Education (TAPS) Employee Acknowledgment, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A. The acknowledgment will be incorporated into

House of Fire's employee onboarding process and requires employees to provide House of Fire with proof of current certification. It also expressly advises employees that they may not sell or serve alcoholic beverages, check identification for an alcohol purchase, or perform other duties requiring alcohol server education unless and until House of Fire has verified that the employee holds the required current certification. The form also provides a mechanism for management to document the employee's certification and expiration dates and management's verification of the certification. These changes are intended to create a direct verification process at the management and scheduling level and prevent a similar administrative oversight from occurring in the future.

As reflected in the Notice of Violation, House of Fire has no disciplinary history within the preceding five years. This incident was not the result of an intentional disregard of the alcohol server education requirements. Rather, it identified a gap in House of Fire's existing verification process, which House of Fire has taken seriously and is correcting. In light of House of Fire's clean disciplinary history, its cooperation with AMCO, and the corrective measures taken following the inspection, House of Fire respectfully requests that the Board resolve this matter without imposing additional disciplinary action against License No. 6074.

House of Fire appreciates AMCO Enforcement bringing this deficiency to its attention and will continue to maintain the improved compliance procedures described above. Please let us know if the Board would like any additional information.

Truly and Sincerely Yours,

Jana D. Weltzin, Esq.

HOUSE OF FIRE PIZZA

Alcohol Server Education (TAPS) Employee Acknowledgment

House of Fire Pizza requires all employees age 18 or older to obtain and maintain current alcohol server education certification (commonly referred to as a "TAPS card") as a condition of performing any job duties for which alcohol server education is required.

Alaska law requires persons who sell or serve alcoholic beverages, or check identification for the purchase of alcoholic beverages, to complete an approved alcohol server education course within the time required by law.

By signing below, I acknowledge and agree that:

- I am responsible for timely completing the required alcohol server education course and maintaining a current TAPS certification while performing any duties for which certification is required.
- I must provide House of Fire Pizza with a copy of my current TAPS card/certificate so that the restaurant can verify and maintain documentation of my certification.
- I may not sell or serve alcoholic beverages, check identification for the purchase of alcoholic beverages, or perform any other duties requiring alcohol server education unless and until House of Fire Pizza has verified that I have the required current certification.
- If my TAPS certification expires, lapses, or otherwise becomes invalid, I must immediately notify management and may not perform any duties requiring alcohol server education until my certification has been renewed and House of Fire Pizza has received and verified proof of the renewed certification.
- I understand that simply registering or scheduling a TAPS course does not authorize me to perform duties requiring alcohol server education. I must complete the required course and provide proof of current certification before performing those duties.
- I understand that compliance with these requirements is a condition of being assigned duties involving the sale or service of alcoholic beverages or checking identification for alcohol purchases.

I understand these requirements and agree to comply with them. I understand that House of Fire Pizza may remove me from alcohol-related duties if I do not have current, verified alcohol server education certification on file.

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in response to the Notice of Violation regarding the employment of underage individuals.

Upon being made aware of the violation, we immediately removed the underage employees from their positions to ensure compliance with ABC regulations. Prior to this, we mistakenly believed that individuals under the required age could work with parental permission and valid work permits, provided they were not serving or handling alcoholic beverages. During their employment, they did not serve alcohol. They completed several training shifts and worked only one regular shift before the issue was brought to our attention.

We understand that our interpretation of the requirements was incorrect. We have reviewed the applicable regulations, and we have taken steps to ensure this does not happen again. We will verify age eligibility and applicable ABC requirements before hiring or scheduling any employee for work in our licensed establishment.

We take compliance with ABC regulations seriously and appreciate the opportunity to correct this matter promptly. Since learning of the violation, this issue has not occurred again, and we are committed to ensuring full compliance going forward.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Britney Taylor, Owner
