11. Property Taxes; Improvement Assessments: The Lessor shall bear and discharge any property taxes levied upon the demised premises during the term of this Lease. If any municipal sewer and water improvement assessments are levied on said premises during the continuance of this Lease, the Lessor shall bear and discharge, as and when due, the periodic installment payments falling due thereon.

12. Inspection by Lessor: The Lessor, personally or through agent designated in writing, may enter upon the demised premises at reasonable times upon prior notice to the Lessee, for the purpose of inspecting the condition thereof or making any repair thereto reasonably necessary or appropriate to protect, preserve or safeguard the demised premises.

13. Subletting & Assignment: The Lessee may not sublet the demised premises nor assign this Lease, except with the written consent of the Lessor first had and obtained. In event of any subletting or assignment permitted by Lessor, the Lessee shall continue to be personally responsible for the due payment and performance of obligations herein undertaken by said Lessee.

14. Quiet Enjoyment: The Lessor covenants that the Lessee, upon paying the rents herein provided, as and when due, and upon otherwise abiding the obligations of the Lessee herein undertaken, shall peaceably hold and enjoy the demised premises during the term of this Lease, without interruption by any person lawfully claiming or to claim the same.

15. Bankruptcy: In the event the Lessee shall be adjudged a bankrupt, upon a voluntary or involuntary petition thereon before a court of competent jurisdiction, or in the event the rights of the Lessee hereunder shall pass to a third party by seizure or levy pursuant to operations of law, the Lessor may terminate this Lease, and all possessory rights herein afforded the Lessee, by written notice of termination for such stated reasons, delivered to the Lessee or to the successors in interest of said Lessee, subject however to such limitations upon such right as may arise under the bankruptcy laws of the United States. In event of any such termination, rents shall be pro-rated as of the effective date such premise are recovered back by the Lessor. In event of a bankruptcy proceeding, the Lessee covenants it will not oppose a motion by Lessor to have this property released from any automatic stay arising under 11 USCA, §362.

16. Hazard Insurance: During the term of this Lease the Lessor shall, at Lessor's expense, keep the existing building insured against loss by fire and with such extended coverage as deemed appropriate. The Lessee covenants not to utilize the subject premises, nor to permit others to utilize the same, in a manner that causes an increase in insurance rates because of hazardous activities or substance on said premises. In the event the subject improvements are partially damaged by fire or other insured hazard, but not rendered untenantable, the same shall be repaired from insurance proceeds with due diligence. In the event the existing building is so substantially damaged or destroyed by fire or other insured hazard as to be untenantable, neither party shall be under a duty to repair or rebuild, and this Lease may thereupon be terminated by either party, with rents to be pro-rated as of the date the premises are surrendered back to the Lessor. Each party does hereby release and relieve the other from and waive his entire claim of recovery against the other for, any loss, damage or injury to person or property arising out of or incident to fire, lightning, smoke or water damage occurring on the premises, and any other perils covered by the extended coverage endorsement to any insurance policies on said premises, whether due to negligence of either party or their agents, employees, invitees or otherwise, but not hereby intending to release a party from any intentional wrongdoing. It is expressly understood that such insurance coverage does not insure against loss to the Lessee's equipment and inventory of merchandise on said premises; and that the Lessee should maintain separate insurance coverage on such matters.

17. Late Charge: If any rent falling due hereunder, whether base rent or percentage rent, be not paid by the 10th day of the month in which due, a late charge of $300.00 shall automatically be imposed and due, and the same shall be paid with such delinquent rent.

18. Default: Time is of the essence in this Lease. In the event the Lessee shall fail to make any rent payment falling due hereunder within five (5) days after the due date thereof; or in the event the Lessee shall fail to abide or perform any other obligation herein undertaken by the Lessee for a like period of days after written notice of such failure has been given to the Lessee by the Lessor; then and in either of such events the Lessee shall be in default of the Lessee's obligations hereunder; and at any time while such default continues, and without prejudice to any other remedy afforded at law or in equity for the enforcement of the Lessee's obligations hereunder or for recovery of damages for the breach thereof, the Lessor shall have and does hereby reserve the further right to terminate this Lease, and all possessory rights herein afforded the Lessee, by written notice of termination for such reasons stated, delivered to the lessee personally or sent to the Lessee at the Lessee's last known mailing address, and pursuant thereto the Lessor shall have the right to re-enter and retake the subject premises, or any portion thereof in the name of the whole, and to remove therefrom the Lessee and those claiming under said Lessee, with force if necessary.

19. Payments by Lessor in Behalf of Lessee: Should the Lessee fail to pay or perform any obligation herein by the Lessee undertaken, then the Lessor, but without being required so to do, may pay or perform the same to protect the security hereof, and in such event all out-of-pocket expenditures by the Lessor, with interest thereon at 10% per annum, shall be repaid by the Lessee to the Lessor, upon demand of the Lessor and submission to Lessee of a written accounting as to the nature and amount of such expenditures.

20. Notice of Lessor's Objections to Lessee's Use of Premises: First Right to Relet: It is understood that the Lessor has adjoining property which the Lessor intends to develop and put to commercial uses in the future, and that the Lessor has a special interest as to the Lessee's conduct of business on the leased premises and a special interest as to the care and attractiveness of such leased premises while in the Lessee's possession; as also that if this Lease proves to be mutually satisfactory and profitable to the parties, they would both like it to continue into the future under an extension or renewal of this Lease, or under some modification hereof or some reletting of the premise by the Lessor to the Lessee. To these ends it is agreed that if the Lessor shall find that any aspect of the Lessee's operations on the leased premise, or any aspect of the Lessee's use and care of the leased premise, are at any time unsatisfactory or upsetting to the Lessor, then and in such event the Lessor shall give the Lessee prompt written notice of the same so that the Lessee can consider such concerns and take such action as deemed appropriate in light thereof. The Lessee, upon paying the rents falling due hereunder, as and when due, and upon otherwise abiding the Lessee's obligations herein undertaken, and upon being found by the Lessor to be a satisfactory tenant in said leased premises, shall have and is hereby granted the first right and option to relet said premises at the conclusion of the term of this Lease, for such rents and upon such terms and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties, it being understood that such reletting of said premise to the Lessee is contingent upon the Lessor finding this to be in the Lessor's best interest. If the Lessee so desires to relet

Said premise; the Lessee shall give the Lessor written notice to such effect at least sixty (60) days prior to expiration of the term of this Lease. If the Lessor is of the view that the Lessee is unacceptable as a continuing tenant in said premises, the Lessor shall so notify the Lessee in writing within ten (10) days. Otherwise the parties shall endeavor to negotiate and agree upon the rents and other terms of such reletting, and during such remaining period of the within Lease the Lessor covenants not to commit or conclude a future lease of said premises to any third party at rents or other terms and provisions more attractive to a tenant than those afforded to the within Lessee.

21. Modifications: No modifications hereof shall be binding upon the parties unless the same is in writing and signed at least by the party thereby surrendering an existing right or undertaking a further duty. Letter modifications are thus permitted, and notarization of signatures is not required.

22. Expunging Record: Upon the expiration of this Lease, or its earlier termination, the Lessee agrees to execute and deliver to Lessor, upon Lessor's request, an appropriate recordable quitclaim or other release instrument acknowledging or confirming that this Lease, and all possessory rights herein afforded the Lessee, are of no further force and effect.

23. Successors: Joint and Several Obligations: The benefit hereof shall inure to, and the burden hereof shall be binding upon, the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and lawful assigns of the respective parties. The obligations herein devolving upon a party shall be deemed and construed as joint and several obligations of the persons who are herein denominated as that party.

→ 24. Acknowledgement from Lessor of use of premises: The Landlord/Lessor acknowledges that the Lessee will be using the property leased as a marijuana "Grow Only" establishment.

→ 25. Removal of property: The Lessor will not remove or take possession of any marijuana or other property belonging to the Lessee. The A.MC.O will be contacted.

The Members shall look solely to the Company property for the return of their Initial Contribution, or value thereof, and if the Company property remaining after payment or discharge of the debts, liabilities or obligations of the Company is insufficient to return such Initial Contributions, or value thereof, no Member shall have any recourse against any other Member except as is expressly provided for by this Agreement.

- D. Withdrawal or Death of a Member . Should a Member die or withdraw from the Company by choice, the remaining Members will have the option to buy out that Member's Membership Interest in the Company. Should the Members agree to buy out the Membership Interest of the withdrawing Member, that Interest shall be paid for equally by the remaining Members and distributed in equal amounts to the remaining Members. The Members agree to hire an outside firm to assess the value of the Membership Interest.

The Members will have 60 days to decide if they want to buy the Membership Interest together and disperse it equally. If all Members do not agree to buy the Membership Interest, individual Members will then have the right to buy the Membership Interest individually. If more than one Member requests to buy the remaining Membership Interest, the Membership Interest will be paid for and split equally among those Members wishing to purchase the Membership Interest. If all Members agree by unanimous vote, the Company may choose to allow a non-Member to buy the Membership Interest thereby replacing the previous Member.

If no individual Member(s) finalize a purchase agreement by 60 days, the withdrawing Member, or their estate, may dispose of their Membership Interest however they see fit, subject to the limitations in Section III(E) below. If a Member is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that Member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

The name of the Company may be amended upon the written and unanimous vote of all Members if a Member withdraws, dies, is dissolved or terminated.

- E. Creation or Substitution of New Members . Any Member may assign in whole or in part its Membership Interest only after granting their fellow Members the right of first refusal, as established in Section III(D) above.

1. Entire transfer . If a Member transfers all of its Membership Interest, the transferee shall be admitted to the Company as a substitute Member upon its execution of an instrument signifying its agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Such admission shall be deemed effective immediately upon the transfer, and, simultaneously, the transferor Member shall cease to be a Member of the Company and shall have no further rights or obligations under this Agreement.
2. Partial transfer . If a Member transfers only a portion of its Membership Interest, the transferee shall be admitted to the Company as an additional Member upon its execution of an instrument signifying its agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3. Whether a substitute Member or an additional Member, absent the written consent of all existing Members of the Company, the transferee shall be a limited Member and possess only the percentage of the monetary rights of the transferor Member that was transferred without any voting power as a Member in the Company.

F. Member Voting .

1. Voting power . The Company's Members shall each have one Vote equal to the Vote of each other Member, regardless of the Member's share of Membership Interest in the Company.
2. Proxies . At all meetings of Members, a Member may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Such proxy shall be delivered to the other Members of the Company before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

G. Duties of the Members . The Members shall cause the Company to do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises. The Members also shall cause the Company to:

1. Maintain its own books, records, accounts, financial statements, stationery, invoices, checks and other limited liability company documents and bank accounts separate from any other person;
2. At all times hold itself out as being a legal entity separate from the Members and any other person and conduct its business in its own name;
3. File its own tax returns, if any, as may be required under applicable law, and pay any taxes required to be paid under applicable law;
4. Not commingle its assets with assets of the Members or any other person, and separately identify, maintain and segregate all Company assets;
5. Pay its own liabilities only out of its own funds, except with respect to organizational expenses;
6. Maintain an arm's length relationship with the Members, and, with respect to all business transactions entered into by the Company with the Members, require that the terms and conditions of such transactions (including the terms relating to the amounts paid thereunder) are the same as would be generally available in comparable business transactions if such transactions were with a person that was not a Member;

7. Pay the salaries of its own employees, if any, out of its own funds and maintain a sufficient number of employees in light of its contemplated business operations;
8. Not guarantee or become obligated for the debts of any other person or hold out its credit as being available to satisfy the obligations of others;
9. Allocate fairly and reasonably any overhead for shared office space;
10. Not pledge its assets for the benefit of any other person or make any loans or advances to any person;
11. Correct any known misunderstanding regarding its separate identity;
12. Maintain adequate capital in light of its contemplated business purposes;
13. Cause its Members to meet or act pursuant to written consent and keep minutes of such meetings and actions and observe all other Alaska limited liability company formalities;
14. Make any permitted investments directly or through brokers engaged and paid by the Company or its agents;
15. Not require any obligations or securities of the Members; and
16. Observe all other limited liability formalities.

Failure of the Members to comply with any of the foregoing covenants shall not affect the status of the Company as a separate legal entity or the limited liability of the Members.

H. Fiduciary Duties of the Members .

1. Loyalty and Care. Except to the extent otherwise provided herein, each Member shall have a fiduciary duty of loyalty and care similar to that of members of limited liability companies organized under the laws of Alaska.
2. Competition with the Company. The Members shall refrain from dealing with the Company in the conduct of the Company's business as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the Company unless a majority, by individual vote, of the Members excluding the interested Member, consents thereto. The Members shall refrain from competing with the Company in the conduct of the Company's business unless a majority, by individual vote, of the Members excluding the interested Member, consents thereto. In the event that a Member is the sole Member of the Company, no vote shall be required.

3. Duties Only to the Company. The Member's fiduciary duties of loyalty and care are to the Company and not to the other Members. The Members shall owe fiduciary duties of disclosure, good faith and fair dealing to the Company and to the other Members. A Member who so performs their duties shall not have any liability by reason of being or having been a Member.
4. Reliance on Reports. In discharging the Member's duties, a Member is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by any of the following:
 - i. One or more Members or employees of the Company whom the Member reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
 - ii. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the Member reasonably believes are within the persons' professional or expert competence.
 - iii. A committee of Members of which the affected Member is not a participant, if the Member reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

I. Waiver of Partition: Nature of Interest . Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each Member hereby irrevocably waives any right or power that such Member might have to cause the Company or any of its assets to be partitioned, to cause the appointment of a receiver for all or any portion of the assets of the Company, to compel any sale of all or any portion of the assets of the Company pursuant to any applicable law or to file a complaint or to institute any proceeding at law or in equity to cause the dissolution, liquidation, winding up or termination of the Company. No Member shall have any interest in any specific assets of the Company.

J. Compensation of Members . The Members shall have the authority to fix the compensation of individual Members. All Members may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at meetings of the Members, which may be a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Members or a stated salary as a Member. No such payment shall preclude any Member from serving the Company in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

- K. Members as Agents . All Members are agents of the Company for the purpose of its business. An act of any Member, including the signing of an instrument in the Company's name, binds the Company where the Member executed the act for apparently carrying on the Company's business or business of the kind carried on by the Company in the ordinary course, unless the Member had no authority to act for the Company in the particular matter and the person with whom the Member was dealing knew or had notice that the Member lacked authority. An act of a Member binds the Company, however, even where the Member executed the act not apparently for carrying on the Company's business or business of the kind carried on by the Company in the ordinary course only if the act was authorized by the other Members.

IV. Accounting and Distributions.

- A. Fiscal Year . The Company's fiscal year shall end on the last day of December.
- B. Records . All financial records including tax returns and financial statements will be held at the Company's primary business address and will be accessible to all Members.
- C. Distributions . Distributions shall be issued on a monthly basis, based upon the Company's fiscal year. The distribution shall not exceed the remaining net cash of the Company after making appropriate provisions for the Company's ongoing and anticipatable liabilities and expenses. Each Member shall receive a percentage of the overall distribution that matches that Member's percentage of Membership Interest in the Company.

V. Tax Treatment Election.

The Company has not filed with the Internal Revenue Service for treatment as a corporation. Instead, the Company will be taxed as a pass-through organization. The Members may elect for the Company to be treated as a C-Corporation at any time.

VI. Dissolution.

- A. Limits on Dissolution . The Company shall have a perpetual existence, and shall be dissolved, and its affairs shall be wound up only upon the provisions established in Section II(C) above.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Bankruptcy of any Member shall not cause such Member to cease to be a Member of the Company and upon the occurrence of such an event, the business of the Company shall continue without dissolution.

Each Member waives any right that it may have to agree in writing to dissolve the Company upon the Bankruptcy of any Member or the occurrence of any event that causes any Member to cease to be a Member of the Company.

- B. Winding Up . Upon the occurrence of any event specified in Section II(C), the Company shall continue solely for the purpose of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors. One or more Members, selected by the remaining Members, shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company, shall take full account of the liabilities of the Company and its assets, shall either cause its assets to be distributed as provided under this Agreement or sold, and if sold as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair market value thereof, shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefor, to be applied and distributed as provided under this Agreement.
- C. Distributions in Kind . Any non-cash asset distributed to one or more Members in liquidation of the Company shall first be valued at its fair market value (net of any liability secured by such asset that such Member assumes or takes subject to) to determine the profits or losses that would have resulted if such asset were sold for such value, such profit or loss shall then be allocated as provided under this Agreement. The fair market value of such asset shall be determined by the Members or, if any Member objects, by an independent appraiser (any such appraiser must be recognized as an expert in valuing the type of asset involved) approved by the Members.
- D. Termination . The Company shall terminate when (i) all of the assets of the Company, after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company, shall have been distributed to the Members in the manner provided for under this Agreement and (ii) the Company's registration with the state of Alaska shall have been canceled in the manner required by Alaska law.
- E. Accounting . Within a reasonable time after complete liquidation, the Company shall furnish the Members with a statement which shall set forth the assets and liabilities of the Company as at the date of dissolution and the proceeds and expenses of the disposition thereof.
- F. Limitations on Payments Made in Dissolution . Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, each Member shall only be entitled to look solely to the assets of the Company for the return of its Initial Contribution and shall have no recourse for its Initial Contribution and/or share of profits (upon dissolution or otherwise) against any other Member.

- G. Notice to Alaska Authorities . Upon the winding up of the Company, the Member with the highest percentage of Membership Interest in the Company shall be responsible for the filing of all appropriate notices of dissolution with Alaska and any other appropriate state or federal authorities or agencies as may be required by law. In the event that two or more Members have equally high percentages of Membership Interest in the Company, the Member with the longest continuous tenure as a Member of the Company shall be responsible for the filing of such notices.

VII. Exculpation and Indemnification.

- A. No Member, employee or agent of the Company and no employee, agent or affiliate of a Member (collectively, the "Covered Persons") shall be liable to the Company or any other person who has an interest in or claim against the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct.
- B. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, a Covered Person shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement. Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a Covered Person defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Company. The Covered Person shall be liable to repay such amount if it is determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Agreement. No Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person by reason of such Covered Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions. Any indemnity under this Agreement shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only.
- C. A Covered Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any person as to matters the Covered Person reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to the Members might properly be paid.

- D. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company or to any other Covered Person, a Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The provisions of the Agreement, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of a Covered Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Members to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Covered Person.
- E. The foregoing provisions of this Article VII shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

VIII. Insurance.

The Company shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance, including insurance on behalf of any Covered Person against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such Covered Person in any such capacity, or arising out of such Covered Person's status as an agent of the Company, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of Article VII or under applicable law.

IX. Settling Disputes.

All Members agree to enter into mediation before filing suit against any other Member or the Company for any dispute arising from this Agreement or Company. Members agree to attend one session of mediation before filing suit. If any Member does not attend mediation, or the dispute is not settled after one session of mediation, the Members are free to file suit. Any law suits will be under the jurisdiction of the state of Alaska.

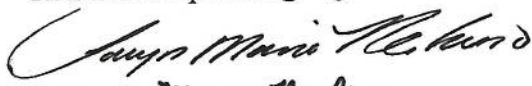

X. General Provisions.

- A. Notices . All notices, offers or other communications required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and may be personally served or sent by United States mail and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person or three (3) business days after deposit in United States mail, registered or certified, postage prepaid, and properly addressed, by or to the appropriate party.
- B. Number of Days . In computing the number of days (other than business days) for purposes of this Agreement, all days shall be counted, including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays; provided, however, that if the final day of any time period falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday on which national banks are or may elect to be closed, then the final day shall be deemed to be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or such holiday.
- C. Execution of Counterparts . This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

- D. Severability . The provisions of this Agreement are independent of and separable from each other, and no provision shall be affected or rendered invalid or unenforceable by virtue of the fact that for any reason any other or others of them may be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part.
- E. Headings . The Article and Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience and they form no part of this Agreement and shall not affect its interpretation.
- F. Controlling Law . This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the state of Alaska (without regard to conflicts of law principles thereof).
- G. Application of Alaska Law . Any matter not specifically covered by a provision of this Agreement shall be governed by the applicable provisions of Alaska law.
- H. Amendment . This Agreement may be amended only by written consent of all the Members. Upon obtaining the approval of any such amendment, supplement or restatement as to the Certificate, the Company shall cause a Certificate of Amendment or Amended and Restated Certificate to be prepared, executed and filed in accordance with Alaska law.
- I. Entire Agreement . This Agreement contains the entire understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, inducements or conditions, express or implied, oral or written, except as herein contained.
