Comment:

All marijuana products and paraphilia:

- 1). Should be taxed at 500%.
- 2). Everyone that buys, sells, transports, consumes, grows, or processes marijuana should have to have an endorsement on their drivers license/state ID. That endorsement should cost at least $250 to cover the cost of administering the endorsement.
- 3). The DL Endorsement should require an FBI background check. No one with a felony conviction, domestic abuse conviction, mental health condition, suicide attempt, etc. should be allowed the endorsement.
- 4). No one with a DL marijuana endorsement should be allowed to receive TANF, Food Stamps, or any other public assistance.
- 5). We need drug treatment facilities for rehab. The list of people with marijuana endorsements should be taxed in addition to the marijuana sales tax to fund these facilities. I think a $500 tax per person per year is a good start.

They wanted consumption with regulation and taxation. I think we should give it to them, the regulation and taxation that is...

I believe that a 4th item should appear on the consumer notice, consistent with the Cole Memo.

(4) "Possession or use of marijuana or marijuana products on federal property is prohibited by federal law."

Thanks,
