Upon reviewing your Facebook page, it was learned that you are using variations of the cartoon "Smiley Face" as a marketing tool. In one depiction, the cartoon character face has droopy/bloodshot eyes and a lit marijuana cigarette in its mouth. In the other, the cartoon characters eyes have been removed and replaced with marijuana leafs. This is a violation of regulations.

Re: Violation Dated 4-10-17
Case: AB17-0158

I received the violation concerning advertising using a cartoon character (Smiley face).

The post that included the cartoon character has been deleted. I monitor our Facebook page and use social media carefully. We do not advertise strains or prices. Our Facebook page is used to let our customers know if we are open and whether we have product on our shelves. Using a cartoon character was an oversight.

In the future, I will not use any artwork or cartoon characters in our Facebook post. This oversight will not be repeated.

Thank you for the opportunity to correct this error.

Re: Violation Dated 4-13-17
Case: AB17-0169

I received the violation concerning advertising having a 420 Bash Facebook Post- Advertisement.

All 420 Bash Facebook posts have been removed. The joint post or advertisement was done without looking at it from a regulatory manner. It very much looks as if High Bush was encouraging sales with games. Now that it has been brought to my attention I have to admit, I feel a bit foolish that I did not see the obvious violation.

On April 20 2017,

1. High Bush Buds will be giving away containers and lanyards to some of our customers, this will happen inside the store.
2. Any sales or specials offered by Lucky Raven Tobacco will not be connected in any way to High Bush Buds.
3. Any advertising by Lucky Raven Tobacco will be for their store and their store only, with no association to High Bush Buds.
4. If Lucky Raven Tobacco chooses to giveaway donuts and drinks on the property, it will be done as far away from the High Bush Buds front door as possible.
5. In order to demonstrate High Bush Buds commitment to compliance, Lucky Raven Tobacco has agreed to halt all game-like events during the 420 Bash. This is being done so there will be no confusion or concerns.

For Future, it will be very easy to make sure this does not occur again. Simply, do not have any joint events or do any joint advertising with Lucky Raven Tobacco. High Bush will be more mindful when advertising or promoting their store in order to stay in compliance.

Thank you for the opportunity to correct this error.

This is a notice to you as licensee that an alleged violation has occurred. If the Marijuana Control Board decides to act against your license, under the provisions of AS 44.62.330 - AS 44.62.630 (Administrative Procedures Act) you will receive an Accusation and Notice of your right to an Administrative Hearing.

Note: This is not an accusation or a criminal complaint.

On 05-05-2017 at 1756 hrs. the Alcohol and Marijuana Control Office Enforcement Unit received an anonymous complaint that you were advertising marijuana strain CBD Skunk Haze on your web site, <http://highbushbuds.com>, as having curative or therapeutic effects.

On 05-08-2017 at approximately 0850 hrs. I visited your web site, <http://highbushbuds.com>, and saw marijuana strain CBD Skunk Haze listed. Under its description it states "This strain is appreciated for its medicinal value,....." While reading advertisements for other marijuana strains on your web site I noticed other products listing marijuana products as having therapeutic effects including the marijuana strain Pineapple Fields. Under this marijuana strain description it states "Enjoy Pineapple Fields throughout the day to elevate mood, curb depression, and stimulate motivation."

These descriptions makes the advertisements a violation of Alaska Marijuana Regulation section 3 AAC 306.360(b)(3) as follows:

3 AAC 306.360: Restriction on advertising of marijuana products.

(b): An advertisement for marijuana or a marijuana product may not contain a statement or illustration that:

(3) Represents that the use of marijuana has curative or therapeutic effects

3 AAC 306.805 provides that upon receipt of a Notice of Violation, a licensee may request to appear before the board and be heard regarding the Notice of Violation. The request must be made within ten days after receipt of the Notice. A licensee may respond, either orally or in writing, to the Notice. 3 AAC 306.810(3)(A)(B)(C) failed, within a reasonable time after receiving a notice of violation from the director, to correct any defect that is the subject of the notice of violation of AS 17.38 or this chapter, a condition or restriction imposed by the board or other applicable law.

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT YOU RESPOND IN WRITING TO DOCUMENT YOUR RESPONSE FOR THE MARIJUANA CONTROL BOARD.

Re: Violation Dated 5-8-17
Case: 17-0219

I received the violation concerning advertising on our website. You said it looked as if we were giving medical advice.

Our web site is managed by a web specialist. I had given her a strain catalog for a reference guide to describe the strains. Those definitions on our website were taken from the catalog almost word for word. We never intended to give medical advice.

In fact, I had understood the regulations for medical advice to mean... "when a person comes into our store and tells us their medical condition and then we tell them which strain would help their illness". I hadn't considered the strain information about moods, energy or even the commonly used word 'depression' as giving medical advice.

To make sure this does not happen again the following changes have been made. From now on our web specialist will only use tasting profiles or tasting notes to describe a specific strain and no attributes as to how the strain affects your body will be included on our web site or in any advertising medium.

Thank you for the opportunity to correct this error.
