Product Name:	Cannabis Oil for Edibles and Topicals
Product Type: Choose one.	Marijuana Concentrate
Perishable: Yes/No	Yes	Shelf Life: If perishable.	1 year
Intended Use: Smokable/ edible/topical/wholesale/etc.	Wholesale to licensed manufactures for edibles and topicals. In-house use also
Product Description: Details must include the color, shape, and texture.	Cannabis oil for edibles and topicals has the viscosity of olive oil. Depending on the strain it will be clear yellow, amber, honey or green colored.
Ingredients:	Cannabis oil. Nothing else will be added to the oil. The oil itself will be used as an ingredient in other approved products where cannabis oil is approved.
Standard Production Procedure and Detailed Manufacturing Process:	Cannabis oil will be produced by processing flower or trim with butane through a closed loop hydrocarbon machine. The resulting oil will be vacuum purged to removed residual butane. The product will then be dissolved in ethanol, placed in a -10 F degree freezer until the lipids and waxes precipitate out. This solution will be filtered, then run through rotary evaporation to remove the ethanol. The remaining oil will be returned to the vacuum oven until residual solvents are undetectable. The heat will be increased to 250 degrees for 30 minutes to decarboxylate. A sample will be sent to a testing lab for potency. Oil will be stored in airtight glass jars.
Depiction: Provide a photograph, drawing, or graphic representation of the expected appearance of the final product.

Section 7 – Proposed Product Packaging and Sample Labels

Review the requirements under 3 AAC 306.520, 3 AAC 306.565, and 3 AAC 306.570.

Attach a completed copy of this page for each proposed marijuana concentrate or marijuana product.
