Explanation for NOV Dated 1/14/19
Rainforest Farms, LLC License #10026

Marijuana Control Board,

This letter is to inform you of the NOV license #10026 received on 1/14/19 and an explanation as to how we resolved the matter.

This violation occurred due to late payment on our taxes. As man of you know, the lack of banking services make it difficult to physically bring cash payments from Juneau (location of our facility) to Anchorage where the cash payment drop box is.

In this situation, we were not able to physically get to Anchorage on time for this tax payment. So, I was finally able to find a 3rd party service to write the check and send the payment in the mail. We had resolved this matter within 30 days.

Furthermore, we have started using this 3rd party service to help us make payments more timely as they have the ability to send checks in the mail. As a result, we do not see making payments in cash to be a problem in the future.

Please let me know if you have any further questions about this.

Sincerely, James Barrett
