Well we just got an NOV. there may be a small possibility we avoided actually getting an official NOV, maybe? This seems to say we would get an NOV if the taxes were more than 30 days late, which I believe the post mark on the mailed check does beat the 30 daedeadline. But the NOV PDF looks pretty damn official.

Regardless I wanted to FWD this to give you a heads up.

Thanks

Subject: Re: NOV Delinquency in Tax 10043

Good evening,
I do apologize for this mix up. In this case I had mailed in a check for the full amount of $7,545.35. I mistakenly left out spelling "Five Hundred", but I had the correct amount in "digits" on the right hand side of the check. But the bank refused to cash it for the amount I had in written in "digits" and only cashed it for the incorrect amount I had spelled out. I hope that makes sense, it wasn't easy trying to put everything into words.
Someone at the revenue office did contact me the following week explaining the issue and it some how fell through the cracks on my end after talking with them.

A check for the full delinquent amount will be in the mail tomorrow morning.

I deeply apologize for the inconvenience.
