Re: NOV Case No: AB18-1358 – Raspberry Roots License No: 10097

Dear AMCO and Enforcement Team:

On November 01, 2018, Raspberry Roots, LLC, received the NOV number referenced above. The NOV states one very important concern:

Your attention is directed to 3 AAC 306.360 Restriction on advertising of marijuana and marijuana products.

Raspberry Roots did make the mistake of not including the mandatory warnings as outlined in the above regulation. This violation occurred due to lack of oversight of the employee who was tasked with social media postings. Since receiving this violation there has been extra training and meetings with all employees who have access to posting on social media, so that it is clear to all employees that in no event are any posts that advertise marijuana and/or marijuana products may be posted without the required warnings. Since receiving the NOV, Raspberry Roots has done an internal audit of all social media outlets that it maintains and ensure each advertising post has the required warnings. They have also implemented new training for employees working with the social media advertising, to stress the importance of including the required warnings with every advertisement posted, as required by 3 AAC 306.360.

Thank you for your consideration,

Jana D. Weltzin, Esq.
