Re: NOV Case No: AB18-0823 – AK Frost License No: 10866

Dear MCB and Enforcement Team:

On July 18th, 2018, my client Kyle Denton, designated licensee for AK Frost, received the NOV number referenced above. The NOV is essentially stating that there was an unreported change of ownership for this license, which would be a violation under 3 AAC 306.040, if this change was a non-controlling ownership change, or 3AAC 306.045 for a major controlling change in ownership.

AK Frost is undergoing ownership restructuring - a group of Alaskan business folks have negotiated to buy less than 50% of an entity named Blackstone Investments, LLC. The concept is that Blackstone Investments will be buying 100% of AK Frost, and Blackstone Investments membership majority is held and owned by the original licensees of this license, David McConnell and Kyle Denton, with Kyle remaining as the manager of the entity.

As you know, our regulations may seem a bit foreign to persons who are not entrenched in this industry and who have not been following the changes to the regulations or do not have that much experience with our regulatory scheme. Therefore, when the group of investors hired a great business attorney to help them with the negotiation and memorialization of said purchase of interest and overall game plan to restructure these entities, a couple assumptions were made about the marijuana specific requirements for transferring ownership of a marijuana license, which lead to the premature filing of the notice of change of officials.

Initially, because the natural persons who originally were the only two licensees for AK Frost (Kyle and Dave) still would hold majority interest of the entity owning the license, Kyle and Dave thought they could do the change of ownership report under 3 AAC 306.040 within ten (10) days for a non-controlling ownership change report. The attorney for the investor group went ahead and filed the notice of changes of officials for AK Frost, replacing Kyle and Dave as owners and adding Blackstone Investments as the sole owner. See attached change of ownership report filed May 4th, 2018.

During the review of the renewal process, my office worked with Jane Sawyer (AMCO plan reviewer) to come up with a method to “undo” the change of ownership back to the original ownership structure, in order to comply with 3AAC 306.045 and we are now in the process of compiling a controlling change of ownership application, which once completed, will be submitted to AMCO for review and later for MCB hearing review. My office personally walked the Notice of Change (to revert the ownership change) to the Anchorage Corporation Commissions Office to obtain a stamped, received version, to prove to the AMCO review team that the ownership was being reverted, to correct the premature filling of the notice of change of officials. See attached stamped notice of change of officials.

The definition of controlling change in interest is not in the regulations and was defined in an MCB board action and therefore, unless a person is really paying attention to our industry and our meetings, it would be a really tough call to determine what the proper change in ownership regulation applied to the situation. It is a completely understandable misunderstanding and there was no change in the business operations from how the company has always been managed – no other persons other than Kyle and Dave have been operating control of the business, the license, or the finances.

We appreciate Jane Sawyer’s help with this matter and this license is now in good standing. The licensees now understand the proper steps that need to occur prior to a transfer in controlling ownership.

Thank you for your consideration,

Jana D. Weltzin, Esq.
