Response to Notice of Violation
Case #AB18000624

11/01/2019

AMCO,

In response to the NOV received on September 17, 2019 and October 19th, 2019 regarding delinquent sales tax.

We have contacted the Department of Revenue about this issue and it appears as though there was a miscommunication about our payment plan that we have made with DOR to have our balance fully paid by February 2020.

It was our understanding that the delinquent taxes were part of our payment plan with DOR, however, we have miscommunicated 1 month of taxes as part of this plan. After we found out about this, we have paid the late Tax in order to ensure that we are current with our payment plan with DOR.

We have been working with DOR on this issue and are hoping to rectify any apparent wrongdoing. We are now current on our DOR payment plan as well as current with DOR taxes that are not part of the payment plan.

ACTIONS TO REMEDY NOV AND PREVENT FUTURE NOVS:

- 1. Rainforest Farms will contact DOR to confirm that we are current on future payments.
- 2. Rainforest Farms will make full and timely payments per Regulations.
- 3. Rainforest Farms will work with third party services to ensure payments are made on time regarding location of cash payment box in Anchorage.

It is our hope that we can work with AMCO and DOR closely on this issue to make sure that it is not only resolved, but will never happen again. We understand the importance of reporting, filing, and payments requirements not only for compliance reasons but also for the efficiency of our own operations. We are open to any suggestions on how we can better comply with the requirements of 3 AAC and DOR Tax Code.

Please do not hesitate to ask for further clarification on this matter as we are eager to ensure full compliance in every way possible.

Sincerely,

James Barrett
Manager
