Investigator Johnson,

On 10/7/19 we received a violation for a radio ad that was broadcast to promote our PFD sale. It was noted in the violation that the required warnings at the end of the ad were sped up "to the point of being unintelligible."

The producer who created this ad was not familiar with state marijuana regulations and did not send the final spot to us for approval before broadcast. We've worked with this station in the past, but with a different producer who is familiar with the rules surrounding this type of advertising.

It's worth noting that despite the incredibly fast rate at which the warnings are read, they still take up 10 seconds on a 30 second spot.

In the future, we will ensure all advertising complies with 3 AAC 306.770 and is approved in its complete and final form before broadcasting or publishing. We apologize for the mistake.
