Re: NOV L&J Ventures, Inc. DBA Scorpion Grass License No: 15789

Dear MCB and Enforcement Team:

This response is for the NOV dated September 28, 2020 in regard to delinquent marijuana excise tax liability.

This NOV occurred one month after the cultivation facility received it's AMCO license. As you know, the facility suffered a horrific fire which delayed operations and caused an un-measurable amount of stress. The September NOV was the issued on the uprising of normality and Scorpion Grass has not failed to meet any responsibilities since. All tax obligations are current, and the company is in good standing with the Dept. of Revenue.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns regarding this response.

Truly and Sincerely Yours,

Jana D. Weltzin, Esq.

I'll have this satisfied this month in its entirety

Once that's accomplished I'll have happily provide confirmation of such an amazing accomplishment.

About a year ago, I didn't know if we were gonna be able to pull out of the "nose dive" we were in, but it's all leveling out and our process and operation is getting more and more efficient and sustainable.

The last couple months I had some unexpected complications come up, those are all smoothed out now and we are full steam ahead 👍

Thanks Jason

Good morning, I am so excited to provide a letter (attached) from the Department of Revenue regarding my outstanding balance.

Last August I was $110,000 behind on excise tax. Today I am $0 behind!
I made some terrible business decisions in 2019 regarding attempting to get into a 3rd garden...a standard at that!
Long story short, that "Great Idea" put me back 1/2 a million ($500,000) give or take...mostly take

As a result of that, I got behind on everything. Everything!
But I kept asking myself "What else am I gonna do" back to the oilfield? No Way!

So I persevered and kept positivity as my North Star, and I sit here drafting this up, proud to announce my debt to the Department of Revenue is satisfied.

This is for anybody who is blaming the tax structure for their failures. And although the tax structure isn't the best it can be, in my opinion, it is absolutely not the reason anybody is going out of business.
Poor business decisions is why people go out of business. At the end of the day, who pays this excise tax? The cultivator? The retailer? No, the consumer does!
So set that excuse on the shelf, I am proof that one can operate their business with a substantial tax delinquency and still get out of the "Delinquency Club"

I still owe a couple more outstanding, personal debts I am excited to get paid back ASAP. But now 90% of my debt is satisfied, and it feels amazing!

#SmokeWell and please let me know if I can be of further assistance!

Hello.

I was stranded out of state for a month. I'm back in state finally. This is my payment plan agreement for the balance due.

I do apologize for the inconvenience and not being able to pay in full. I had one heck of a winter, if you'd like to know:

My mom went into the hospital in December, not with Corona, by February after fighting with 6 doctors and two hospitals, they forced me into pulling her life support and watching her die.

Directly after that, my Rottweiler had to have an emergency C section at midnight, which ended up costing over $3,000. Directly after that, my pup was ran over and died. I was then stranded out of state, with a horse trailer, and no way to come home when my truck broke.

So, I'm not just purposefully not paying. I have had quite a few issues lately. I fully intend to pay. There is way less due than what's on the letter. As I was paying until I ended up with more issues. This is the letter sent to me a couple days ago from the tax office.

Have a Wonderful Day,
Krystal

My apologies. First time in 3 years and I will try to keep it on time.
