I, Armando Rolando Gonzalez, am 35% shareholder in Alaska Wild Coyote, Inc. I would like to make the AMCO Board and AMCO Enforcement aware of the fact that I have had absolutely no knowledge of any business that has transpired for Alaska Marijuana Gardens (AMG), License #12125, since February 25, 2021. Evangelina Gonzalez (no relation) and Abraham Gallo have conspired together to remove me, and completely lock me out of the entire premise at 838 Bonanza Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska 99518. I made numerous attempts to gain entry, however the locks were changed, a security guard was hired by Abraham Gallo to ensure I was not allowed to enter the premise, I requested assistance from APD on several occasions, but APD will no longer respond as they stated it is a civil matter. There is currently a lawsuit in the courts involving this business, as well as AMG Concentrates, #12471. I have had no access to the proceeds from the business, nor am I aware of any taxes that are due or have been owed at any point since 2/25/21.

I do not wish to have my name or reputation ruined due to the business practices or another person when I have absolutely no control over the situation. The Board approved the renewal and transfer of both licenses against my protests at a recent meeting. This situation is having a very detrimental effect on my life.

Thank you,
Armando Rolando Gonzalez

Afternoon Mr. Theiler,

In order for the Dept of Revenue to provide any information to us regarding a specific licensee, a release of information (ROI) by the licensee would need to be filled out. However, If you could have the screenshot sent to me I can attached it to the NOV and provide your correspondence as well. I can't guarantee that would satisfy the board, but under these circumstances it will have to suffice unless another solution is required by the board.

Regarding your NOV on the renewal application, I would provide the marijuana license department the circumstances of your situation. The licensing examiner can provide the documentation for the board for the renewal.

Subject: Re: NOV Delinquency in Tax 11649

Jason,

Have you received any updates from DOR? I have been working with Miriah, she knows the critical details. I know that Ryan Hall, the previous owner (ending 4/14/22) paid his cultivation tax liability in full, he emailed me a screenshot of his paid off account. As the new owner of K Beach Reef (as of 4/14/22), I only recently was able to enroll and set up a new separate cultivation tax account for K Beach Reef. On Monday (or Sunday) I submitted my cultivation tax liability for my newly established tax account, which only had one trim transfer towards the end of the month. I also paid what little tax liability I owed for April. The K Beach Reef cultivation tax account should be completely paid in full and up to date as of 6/2/22.

I take these things very seriously, I don't like wasting people's time with such things.

Let me know where we are at - BECAUSE - I have to complete my renewals for 2022 and I don't know how to fill out the question where it asks whether or not the licensee has received an NOV through 6/30/22. I don't know where I stand and I DO NOT want to answer with an affirmative if at all possible.

Thank you for your help and consideration,

Marc

Jason,

We need to figure this out because I am still currently working out account related issues with Miriah at DOR. The previous owner, Ryan Hall would be responsible for any and all cultivation tax liabilities up until April 14th, 2022. Under new ownership (as of 4/14/22), I only had one date where material was transferred. I will be paying my cultivation tax liabilities next week first thing after the DOR initiates my tax account, which should be first thing Monday (or Tuesday, due to holiday). Please let me know your thoughts. I am well aware of the issue and looking to resolve this issue immediately.

I sincerely appreciate your understanding and patience.
