

ORDER NUMBER R 00-07

August 4, 2000

CONFIDENTIALITY OF DOCUMENTS REGARDING THE EXAMINATION OF State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company

Whereas, the I find that the Alaska Division of Insurance should participate in a multistate examination of State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company;

Whereas, the laws of Alaska and other states participating in the multistate examination of State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company may require that information shared with other participants in the multistate examination be withheld from public disclosure; and

Whereas, the division will be permitted to participate in the multistate examination only if it withholds public disclosure of materials provided by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) or other state whose laws require such materials to be kept confidential;

Now Therefore, I find it is in the public interest to withhold public disclosure of materials received from the NAIC or other states when designated as confidential by the providing state, and

THE DIRECTOR HEREBY ORDERS:

All materials received from the NAIC or other states that designate those materials as confidential shall be withheld from public disclosure under the authority of AS 21.06.150(g).

This order is effective August 4, 2000.

Robert A. Lohr
Director