

2009 Student Volunteer Service Awards

HELP YOUNG VOLUNTEERS RECEIVE RECOGNITION

Know Students Who Should Be Recognized for Their Volunteer Service to the School and Community?

Middle and High School Students are invited to Apply for the 2009 President's Volunteer Service Award.

Self Nominations by Students and Nominations of Students by Adults are due no later than April 3, 2009.

If you know students in CLUBS, HONOR SOCIETY, STUDENT GOVERNMENT, TEAMS, and CLASSES who are contributing their time, talents and energy through volunteerism to your school community please see that they have this opportunity to receive national recognition.

Students 12 – 14 have to have contributed at least 50 hours of volunteer service of all kinds in the past 12 months by April 3, 2009 are qualified.

Students 15 – 25 who have contributed at least 100 hours of volunteer service of all kinds in the past 12 months by April 3, 2009 are qualified.

Students will receive their public recognition on Saturday, April 25, 2009 at the 10th annual Prudential Spirit of Community Student Volunteer Service Recognition Ceremony at the Prudential Centerpoint Building in Anchorage.

In response to the National Call to Service issued by President Obama (www.whitehouse.gov/agenda/service), the President's Volunteer Service Award is sponsored by Prudential, Points of Light & Hands On Network and The Corporation for National and Community Service as an initiative of the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation.

All student award recipients receive a personalized certificate of achievement, a congratulatory letter from the President of the United States, a congratulatory letter from the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation, and an official President's Award pin.

This is a significant national award should appear prominently on students college application and scholarship requests.

Nomination form is below.
