The proper signature on the release form is determined by the following:

a. if the collection agency was licensed as a sole proprietorship at all times during the effective period of the cash bond, the owner’s signature must be notarized on this form;

b. if the collection agency was licensed as a partnership at any time during the effective period of the bond, EACH partner must complete a separate copy of this form and all forms must be submitted directly to the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing;

c. if the collection agency was licensed as a corporation at all times during the effective period of the cash deposit, the signature of an officer of the corporation must be notarized.

According to AS 08.24.150(f), a collection agency that has filed a cash deposit as bond may request the return of the deposit by filing a notarized statement two years after the cash deposit has ceased to function as the bond for the collection agency. The notarized statement must

a. request the return of the cash deposit;

b. certify that the former agency has not been engaged in business as a collection agency for at least two years, OR that the cash deposit was replaced by a surety bond effective at least two years before the request for release, in which case the original surety bond and its power of attorney must be on file with the state; and

c. certify that to the best of the agency’s knowledge, no action has been commenced upon the cash deposit which has not been dismissed or reduced to final judgment which has been satisfied.

The two-year holding period begins with one of the following:

a. the lapse without reinstatement of the agency’s license; or

b. the effective date of a surety bond which replaces the cash deposit; or

c. the date the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing receives a notarized statement from the agency that it has ceased doing business as a collection agency and returns the current, original collection agency license and business license for cancellation.
