ARTICLE 1.
BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS

Section

- 10. Board creation; membership
- 20. Duties of the board

Sec. 08.29.010. Board creation; membership. (a) There is established the Board of Professional Counselors consisting of five members appointed by the governor, one of whom is a public member and four of whom are licensed professional counselors.

(b) In addition to the requirements for public members under AS 08.01.025, the public member of the board may not

(1) ever have been a licensed professional counselor or employed in a commercial or professional field related to counseling; or

(2) live in a household with a person who is or has been, or have an immediate family member who is or has been, a licensed professional counselor or employed in a commercial or professional field related to professional counseling; in this paragraph, "immediate family member" means a parent, sibling, or child related by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(c) Of the four counselor members of the board, at least one shall be employed in the private sector and at least one shall be employed in the public sector.

Sec. 08.29.020. Duties of the board. (a) In addition to the duties specified in AS 08.01, the board shall

(1) license professional counselors and associate counselors, establish criteria for supervisor certification and associate counselor licensure, and certify approved counselor supervisors under this chapter; the board may provide for licensure in areas of counseling specialization;

(2) establish continuing education requirements for the renewal of a license under this chapter;

(3) adopt, by regulation, a code of ethics that must be observed by persons licensed under this chapter;

(4) establish education and training requirements that must be met before a professional counselor can administer and use assessment instruments described in AS 08.29.490(1)(C); and

(5) enforce the provisions of this chapter and adopt regulations necessary to carry out the board's duties under this chapter.

(b) The board may delegate to the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development, and the department may perform, a duty for which the board has authority.

ARTICLE 2.
LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

Section

- 100. Unlicensed use of title prohibited
- 110. Qualifications for licensure
- 120. Licensure by credentials
- 130. Licensure of foreign-educated applicants
- 140. License renewal

Sec. 08.29.100. Unlicensed use of title prohibited. (a) A person who is not licensed under this chapter may not

(1) profess to be a licensed professional counselor, a professional counselor, a licensed counselor, or an associate counselor; or

(2) make use of a title, words, letters, or abbreviations that may reasonably be confused with the title of "licensed professional counselor," "professional counselor," "licensed counselor," or "associate counselor."

(b) Violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor, except that a third or subsequent conviction for violating this section is a class C felony.

Sec. 08.29.110. Qualifications for licensure. (a) The board shall issue a professional counselor license to a person who applies for the license, submits the required fee, and presents evidence satisfactory to the board that the person

(1) is at least 18 years of age;

(2) is not under investigation in this or another jurisdiction for an act that would constitute a violation of this chapter;

(3) has not had a license related to the practice of counseling, psychology, marital and family therapy, or social work in this or another jurisdiction suspended, revoked, or surrendered in lieu of discipline unless the license has been fully reinstated in that jurisdiction;

(4) has passed a written examination as required by the board; the board may provide that passing a nationally recognized examination for professional counselors is sufficient to meet the examination requirement of this paragraph;

(5) has successfully completed either

(A) an earned doctoral degree in counseling or a related professional field from a regionally or nationally accredited institution of higher education approved by the board; or

(B) an earned master's degree in counseling or a related professional field, from a regionally or nationally accredited institution of higher education approved by the board, and at least 60 graduate semester hours in counseling; and

(6) has, after earning the degree required under either (5)(A) or (B) of this subsection, successfully completed an associate counselor program authorized in regulations of the board or completed at least 3,000 hours of supervised experience in the practice of professional counseling performed over a period of at least two years under the supervision of a supervisor approved under regulations of the board, with at least 1,000 hours of direct counseling with individuals, couples, families, or groups and at least 100 hours of direct supervision approved under regulations of the board.

(b) The board may, in its regulations, specify the areas of study that must be covered in order to meet the educational requirements of (a) of this section.

Sec. 08.29.120. Licensure by credentials. (a) Except as provided in (b) of this section, the board may issue a license under this chapter to a person who is licensed in another jurisdiction to practice as a professional counselor or associate counselor if the board finds that the other jurisdiction has substantially the same or higher licensure requirements as this state.

(b) The board may not license under this section a person who is under investigation in this or another jurisdiction for an act that would constitute a violation of this chapter until the investigation is complete and disciplinary sanctions, if any, are imposed and the person has complied with the sanctions.

Sec. 08.29.130. Licensure of foreign-educated applicants. The board may issue a license under this chapter to a person who

(1) has completed a doctorate or master's degree educational program in counseling or a related professional field in a foreign college or university approved by the board;

(2) meets the requirements of AS 08.29.110 except for AS 08.29.110(a)(5); and

(3) demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant's experience, command of the English language, and completed academic program meet the standards of a relevant academic program of an accredited educational institution in the United States.

Sec. 08.29.140. License renewal. Renewal of a license under this chapter may not be granted unless the licensee, within the 24 months immediately preceding the renewal date, has completed the continuing education requirements established by the board.

ARTICLE 3. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section

200. Confidentiality of communications

220. Disclosure statement

230. Limitation of practice

Sec. 08.29.200. Confidentiality of communications. (a) A person licensed under this chapter may not reveal to another person a communication made to the licensee by a client about a matter concerning which the client has employed the licensee in a professional capacity. This section does not apply to

(1) a communication to a potential victim, the family of a potential victim, law enforcement authorities, or other appropriate authorities concerning a clear and immediate probability of physical harm to the client, other individuals, or society;

(2) a case conference or case consultation with other mental health professionals at which the patient is not identified;

- (3) the release of information that the client in writing authorized the licensee to reveal;
 - (4) information released to the board during the investigation of a complaint or as part of a disciplinary or other proceeding; or
 - (5) situations where the rules of evidence applicable to the psychotherapist-patient privilege allow the release of the information.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, a person licensed under this chapter shall report incidents of
- (1) child abuse or neglect as required by AS 47.17;
 - (2) harm or assaults suffered by a vulnerable adult as required by AS 47.24.
- (c) Information obtained by the board under (a)(4) of this section is confidential and is not a public record for purposes of AS 40.25.110 – 40.25.140.

Sec. 08.29.210. Supervisor certification. [Repealed, Sec. 24 and 26 ch 44 SLA 2024.]

Sec. 08.29.220. Disclosure statement. A client may not be charged a fee for professional counseling services unless, before the performance of the services, the client was furnished a copy of a professional disclosure statement that contained

- (1) the name, title, business address, and business telephone number of the professional counselor or associate counselor;
- (2) a description of the formal professional education of the professional counselor or associate counselor, including the institutions attended and the degrees received from them;
- (3) the areas of specialization and the services available of the professional counselor or associate counselor;
- (4) the fee schedule listed by type of service or hourly rate of the professional counselor or associate counselor;
- (5) at the bottom of the first page of the statement, the following sentence: "This information is required by the Board of Professional Counselors which regulates all licensed professional counselors and associate counselors," followed by the name, address, and telephone number of the board's office.

Sec. 08.29.230. Limitation of practice. Notwithstanding that a specific act is within the definition of the "practice of professional counseling," a person licensed under this chapter may not perform the act if the person lacks appropriate education or training related to the act.

ARTICLE 4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section

400. Grounds for denial of license or for disciplinary sanctions

490. Definitions

Sec. 08.29.400. Grounds for denial of license or for disciplinary sanctions. (a) The board may impose a disciplinary sanction under AS 08.01.075 on a person licensed under this chapter or deny a license to a person when the board finds that the person

- (1) has an addiction to, or severe dependency on, alcohol or other drugs that impairs the person's ability to engage safely in the practice of professional counseling;
- (2) has been convicted of a felony and has not been sufficiently rehabilitated to merit the public trust;
- (3) used fraud, deception, misrepresentation, or bribery in securing a license under this chapter or in obtaining permission to take an examination required under this chapter;
- (4) is incompetent or has committed misconduct, fraud, misrepresentation, or dishonesty in the performance of the functions of a licensed professional counselor or associate counselor;
- (5) violated, or assisted another individual to violate, a provision of this chapter or a regulation adopted under this chapter;
- (6) impersonated a person who holds a license under this chapter;
- (7) has had a license related to the practice of counseling, psychology, marital and family therapy, or social work in this or another jurisdiction revoked, suspended, limited, or surrendered in lieu of discipline upon grounds for which a license issued under this chapter could be revoked, suspended, limited, or surrendered in lieu of discipline; this paragraph does not apply to license actions for failure to pay a renewal fee;
- (8) assisted another person who is not licensed under this chapter in an attempt to represent the person to the public as a licensed professional counselor or associate counselor;
- (9) was issued a license based on a material mistake of fact;
- (10) used an advertisement or solicitation that is false, misleading, or deceptive to the general public or the person to whom the advertisement was primarily directed; or
- (11) failed to respond within 30 days to a written communication from the board concerning an investigation by the board or failed to make available to the board a relevant record with respect to an investigation about the licensee's conduct or background.

(b) The board may not impose disciplinary sanctions on a licensee for the evaluation, diagnosis, or treatment of a person through audio, video, or data communications when physically separated from the person if

(1) the licensee or another licensed health care provider is available to provide follow-up care;

(2) the licensee requests that the person consent to sending a copy of all records of the encounter to a primary care provider if the licensee is not the person's primary care provider and, if the person consents, the licensee sends the records to the person's primary care provider; and

(3) the licensee meets the requirements established by the board in regulation.

(c) The board shall adopt regulations restricting the evaluation, diagnosis, supervision, and treatment of a person as authorized under (b) of this section by establishing standards of care, including standards for training, confidentiality, supervision, practice, and related issues.

Sec. 08.29.490. Definitions. In this chapter,

(1) "practice of professional counseling" means, subject to (C) of this paragraph, the application of principles, methods, or procedures of the counseling profession to diagnose or treat, other than through the use of projective testing or individually administered intelligence tests, mental and emotional disorders that are referenced in the standard diagnostic nomenclature for individual, group, and organizational therapy, whether cognitive, affective, or behavioral, within the context of human relationships and systems; if otherwise within the scope of this paragraph, "practice of professional counseling" includes

(A) the professional application of evaluation techniques, treatments, and therapeutic services to individuals and groups for the purpose of treating the emotional and mental disorders;

(B) an applied understanding of the dynamics of the individual and of group interactions, along with the application of therapeutic and counseling techniques for the purpose of resolving intrapersonal and interpersonal conflict and changing perceptions, attitudes, and behaviors in the area of human relationships; and

(C) consistent with regulations adopted by the board under AS 08.29.020(a)(4), administration and use of appropriate assessment instruments that measure or diagnose problems or dysfunctions within the course of human growth and development as part of a counseling process or in the development of a treatment plan;

(2) "supervision" means supervision in which the supervisor is available to provide clinical oversight to the supervisee either in person or by a communication device.

12 AAC 62.110. EXAMINATION. (a) The written examination for a professional counselor license as required under AS 08.29.110(a)(4) is the National Counselor Examination for Licensure and Certification (NCE) or the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE), administered by the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC). An applicant must obtain a passing score on the examination accepted by the board based on the determinations made by the NBCC.

(b) In lieu of the NCE or NCMHCE, the board will accept passage of another nationally recognized examination for professional counselors that is equivalent to the NCE or NCMHCE. The applicant must obtain verification of passage of the examination accepted by the board, sent directly to the board by the administrator of the examination.

(c) Repealed 1/14/2011.

(d) An applicant who has passed an examination specified in (a) or (b) of this section must retake the examination if the applicant has not been issued an initial license within three years of passing the examination. For good cause shown, the board may grant an extension of up to two years of use of the examination.

Authority: AS 08.29.020 AS 08.29.110

12 AAC 62.130. LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS. The board will issue a professional counselor license by credentials to an applicant who meets the requirements of AS 08.29.120, and of this section. An applicant for a license under this section must

- (1) submit a complete application, on a form provided by the department;
- (2) pay the applicable fees established in 12 AAC 02.325;
- (3) submit verification that the applicant holds a license to practice professional counseling in another jurisdiction, current as of the date of application;
- (4) submit documentation of the licensure requirements of the jurisdiction where the applicant holds a license to practice professional counseling;
- (5) repealed 11/1/2024;
- (6) submit complete information regarding any disciplinary action or investigation taken or pending against the applicant, from all licensing jurisdictions where the applicant has ever held a professional counselor license; and
- (7) submit a report of state criminal justice information under AS 12.62.005 – 12.62.200, and if a state other than this state is the applicant's primary state of residence, an equivalent report issued by that other state.

Authority: AS 08.29.020 AS 08.29.120 AS 08.29.400

12 AAC 62.135. TEMPORARY MILITARY COURTESY LICENSE. (a) The board will issue a temporary military courtesy license to an active duty military member or spouse of an active duty military member of the armed forces of the United States to practice as a professional counselor who meets the requirements of AS 08.01.063 and this section not later than 30 days after the board receives a completed application.

- (b) An applicant for a temporary military courtesy license under this section
- (1) must submit a completed application on a form provided by the department;
 - (2) must pay the temporary license application fee and fee for a temporary license set out under 12 AAC 02.105;
 - (3) must submit a copy of
 - (A) the applicant's current active duty military orders showing assignment to a duty station in this state; or
 - (B) if the applicant is the spouse of an active duty military member, the applicant's spouse's current active duty military orders showing assignment to a duty station in this state;
 - (4) must submit documentation showing the applicant is currently licensed in another licensing jurisdiction and the applicant's license in the other jurisdiction is not suspended, revoked, or otherwise restricted except for failure to apply for renewal or failure to obtain the required continuing education requirements; and
 - (5) may not have been convicted of a crime that affects the applicant's ability to practice professional counseling competently and safely, as determined by the board.
- (c) A temporary military courtesy license issued to an active duty military member or spouse of an active duty military member under this section will be issued for a period of 180 days and may be renewed for one additional 180-day period, at the discretion of the board.
- (d) While practicing under a temporary military courtesy license issued under this section, the holder of the temporary military courtesy license must comply with the standards of practice set out in AS 08.29 and this chapter.
- (e) The board may refuse to issue a temporary military courtesy license for the same reasons that it may deny, suspend, or revoke a license under AS 08.01.075 and AS 08.29.400.

12 AAC 62.140. TRANSITIONAL LICENSE. Repealed 12/5/2002.

12 AAC 62.150. EMERGENCY COURTESY LICENSE. (a) In an urgent situation, the board may issue an emergency courtesy license to an applicant who has a license in good standing to practice as a professional counselor in another jurisdiction with licensing requirements at least equivalent to those of this state, and who meets the requirements of this section. The board may limit the scope of a license issued under this section, as appropriate to respond to the urgent situation.

(b) An applicant for an emergency courtesy license under this section must submit to the department a completed application on a form provided by the department.

(c) A license issued under this section is valid for the period specified by the board and may not exceed 120 consecutive days. An emergency courtesy license may be renewed for one additional period specified by the board, not to exceed 120 consecutive days.

(d) While practicing under an emergency courtesy license issued under this section, including by distance, the holder of the license must comply with the standards of practice set out in AS 08.29 and this chapter and is subject to discipline for actions taken or omitted while practicing under the emergency courtesy license.

(e) The board may refuse to issue an emergency courtesy license for the same reasons that it may deny, suspend, or revoke a license under AS 08.29.400.

(f) In this section, "urgent situation" means a health crisis affecting all or part of the state that requires increased availability of professional counselors.

ARTICLE 2.
SUPERVISION.

Section

200. Approved counselor supervisor certification

220. Supervised experience

12 AAC 62.200. APPROVED COUNSELOR SUPERVISOR CERTIFICATION. (a) The board will certify as an approved counselor supervisor an applicant who meets the requirements of AS 08.29.210 and of this section. An applicant for certification under this section must

- (1) submit a complete application, on a form provided by the department;
- (2) submit the board-approved supervisor fee established in 12 AAC 02.325;
- (3) certify that the applicant adheres, and will continue to adhere, to the ethical guidelines adopted in (b) of this section;

(4) submit documentation of having completed at least 25 contact hours of continuing education related to supervision of professional counselors within the two years preceding the date of application; the 25 contact hours of continuing education must include at least 12 hours earned through attendance and completion of synchronous courses, seminars, and workshops; the 25 contact hours must be obtained through any of the following:

- (A) a three semester-hour graduate course in clinical supervision;
- (B) a course approved by the National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC);
- (C) a course approved by the American Counseling Association (ACA);
- (D) a course approved by the American Mental Health Counselors Association (AMHCA); or
- (E) other courses related to professional counseling supervision and presented to the board for pre-approval as equivalent to courses described in (B) – (D) of this paragraph; and

(5) if the applicant is applying to be certified as an approved counselor supervisor from another jurisdiction, submit a copy of the applicant's license in that jurisdiction.

(b) The code of ethics for an approved counselor supervisor certified under this section is the AMHCA Code of Ethics, adopted by reference in 12 AAC 62.900.

(c) The board may deny an application for an approved counselor supervisor certification if the applicant

- (1) has been disciplined by a licensing jurisdiction within three years of the date of the application;
- (2) has violated the ethical standards of a profession in which the applicant currently holds a license, as established by the jurisdiction that issued the license, within three years of the date of the application; or
- (3) is, at the time the application is received by the department, the subject of a complaint or an unresolved investigation for a violation of the ethical standards set out under 12 AAC 62.900 or as established by another state agency or jurisdiction.

12 AAC 62.220. SUPERVISED EXPERIENCE. (a) To be accepted by the board, supervised experience required under AS 08.29.110(a)(6) must include experience in those professional counseling skills included in the definition of "practice of professional counseling" in AS 08.29.490.

(b) To meet the supervised experience requirements of AS 08.29.110(a)(6), the board will accept the hours of supervised experience, accumulated by an applicant for licensure, under the supervision of a person that is certified before the supervision begins, as an approved counselor supervisor under 12 AAC 62.200.

(c) Repealed 2/20/2022.

(d) At least 50 hours of the 100 hours of face-to-face supervised experience required under AS 08.29.110(a)(6) must be accumulated by an applicant in a one-on-one setting with a supervisor certified as an approved counselor supervisor under 12 AAC 62.200. An applicant may accumulate the remaining 50 hours of supervised experience in a one-on-one setting or a group setting with a supervisor certified as an approved counselor supervisor under 12 AAC 62.200. An applicant must accumulate a minimum of one hour of supervision monthly.

(e) An applicant may receive supervision by telephonic or electronic means on Zoom, Microsoft Teams, Apple FaceTime, or another audio and video platform that permits the supervisor and the applicant to engage in communication that is face-to-face. During supervision, the supervisor and applicant must have their microphone and camera activated.

(f) In this section, "face-to-face" means happening precisely at the same time during which the supervisor and applicant are able to communicate in real time.

ARTICLE 3. LICENSE RENEWAL AND REINSTATEMENT; CONTINUING EDUCATION.

Section

- 300. License renewal
- 310. Continuing education requirements
- 320. Approved continuing education
- 330. Audit of continuing education
- 340. License reinstatement
- 350. Failure to meet continuing education requirements

12 AAC 62.300. LICENSE RENEWAL. A licensee applying for renewal of a professional counselor license must

(1) submit a complete renewal application, on a form provided by the department, including a statement of the continuing education contact hours under 12 AAC 62.310 completed by the applicant during the concluding license period; and

(2) pay the license renewal fee established in 12 AAC 02.325.

Authority: AS 08.29.020 AS 08.29.140

12 AAC 62.310. CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS. (a) A licensee applying for renewal of a professional counselor license must complete the number of continuing education contact hours set out in this section. For a biennial licensing period ending on or before October 31, 2023, at least three contact hours must be in professional ethics. For a biennial licensing period beginning on or after November 1, 2023, at least three contact hours must be in professional ethics, at least three contact hours must be in suicidality, and at least three contact hours must be in cultural competency. The number of contact hours for a biennial licensing period is as follows:

(1) first biennial renewal, if the licensee held the license for less than 12 months during the concluding biennial licensing period, 20 contact hours;

(2) first biennial renewal, if the licensee held the license for at least 12 months but less than 18 months during the concluding biennial licensing period, 30 contact hours;

(3) first biennial renewal, if the licensee held the license for 18 months or more during the concluding biennial licensing period, 40 contact hours;

(4) second or subsequent biennial renewal, 40 contact hours.

(b) Except as provided in (c) of this section, the board will consider one continuing education contact hour as a minimum of 50 minutes of classroom instruction between instructor and participant, including instruction in real-time audio and audio-visual courses. The board will accept academic credit converted to contact hours as follows:

(1) one semester academic credit equals 15 contact hours;

(2) one quarter academic credit equals 10 contact hours.

(c) For a course, seminar, or workshop offered or approved by an organization listed in 12 AAC 62.320(b)(2), if the organization has designated the number of continuing education units to be awarded for that course, seminar, or workshop, the board will accept contact hours equal to the designated number of continuing education units.

(d) A minimum of 20 hours of the total number of continuing education contact hours required for renewal of a license under this section must be earned through attendance and completion of synchronous courses, seminars, and workshops.

(e) Not more than one-half of the total number of continuing education contact hours required for renewal of a license under this section may be earned by completion of a correspondence, videotape, audiocassette, or other individual study program.

(f) Only hours of actual attendance during instruction will be accepted as continuing education contact hours earned from an academic course audited by the licensee. The total number of contact hours earned may not exceed the number of academic credit hours offered for that course.

(g) Repealed 2/20/2022.

(h) Not more than 12 contact hours in a 24-hour period may apply to the total number of continuing education contact hours required for renewal of a license under this section.

12 AAC 62.320. APPROVED CONTINUING EDUCATION. (a) To be accepted by the board, continuing education must contribute directly to the professional competency of a professional counselor and must be directly related to the skills and knowledge required to implement professional counseling principles and methods.

(b) The following continuing education will be accepted by the board if related to professional counseling as provided in (a) of this section:

(1) postgraduate courses, seminars, and workshops offered or approved by a regionally or nationally accredited institution of higher education, either audited by the licensee or taken for academic credit;

(2) courses, seminars, and workshops offered or approved by the

(A) American Counseling Association;

(B) Alaska Counseling Association;

(C) American Psychological Association;

(D) Association of Social Work Boards;

(E) National Association of Social Workers;

(F) American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy;

(G) National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC);

(H) Alaska Commission for Behavioral Health Certification;

(I) Alaska Psychological Association;

(J) Alaska School Counselor Association;

(K) Alaska Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers;

(L) American School Counselor Association;

(M) Department of Health or Department of Family and Community Services;

(N) Co-Occurring Disorders Institute, Inc.;

(O) Alaska Training Cooperative;

(P) NAADAC, the Association for Addiction Professionals;

(Q) Regional Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor Training Program;

(R) Association for Play Therapy (APT);

(3) cross-disciplinary courses, seminars, or workshops in the fields of medicine, law, behavioral sciences, ethics, or other disciplines;

(4) first-time preparation and presentation of a professional counseling course, seminar, or workshop; the board will accept up to a maximum of 10 contact hours allocated among all professional counselors involved in the preparation and presentation;

(5) first-time preparation or publication of an article or book chapter related to the practice of professional counseling that was presented at a state or national association meeting or published by a publisher accepted by the board as recognized by the profession; the board will accept up to a maximum of 10 contact hours allocated among all professional counselors involved in the preparation or publication;

(6) completion of a correspondence, video tape, audio cassette, or other individual study program; a program under this paragraph is acceptable only if

(A) the program requires registration and provides evidence of successful completion; or

(B) the licensee submits a signed statement from an approved counselor supervisor who supervised the study program verifying that the licensee has successfully completed the program;

(7) up to 15 contact hours of continuing education in other courses, seminars, workshops, and in service training not covered under (1) - (6) of this subsection that are not specifically preapproved by the board, but meet the standards contained in (a) of this section.

(c) Time spent in job orientation may not be accepted as continuing education contact hours.

12 AAC 62.340. LICENSE REINSTATEMENT. The board will reinstate a license that has been lapsed less than five years if the applicant submits proof of completion of all continuing education contact hours that would have been required to keep the applicant's license current, and the applicant meets all other requirements under AS 08.29 and this chapter for license renewal.

Authority: AS 08.01.100 AS 08.29.020 AS 08.29.140

12 AAC 62.350. FAILURE TO MEET CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS. (a) A licensee may request a waiver of the continuing education requirements of 12 AAC 62.310 by submitting a written request to the board that describes the reasons for the request and includes supporting documentation satisfactory to the board. If the board finds good cause, the board will grant an exemption to the licensee under this subsection. If the board grants the exemption, the board may require an alternative method of demonstrating continued competence.

(b) In this section, "good cause" includes

- (1) physical disability;
- (2) serious illness;
- (3) a family emergency;
- (4) engagement in active duty military service in the armed forces of the United States; and
- (5) other extenuating circumstances, as found by the board.

(c) In this section, "engagement in active duty military service" means military personnel serving in an active capacity, including

- (1) active duty personnel in the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard; and
- (2) reservists and National Guard personnel in a combat zone for a named United States military conflict; in this paragraph, "combat zone" means an area that the President of the United States designates by executive order as an area in which the armed forces of the United States are engaging or have engaged in combat.

12 AAC 62.400. DISTANCE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES. (a) The National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) Policy Regarding the Provision of Distance Professional Services (approved February 6, 2016), is adopted by reference for distance professional services provided by licensees to the extent it does not conflict with 12 AAC 62.

(b) Before providing distance professional services, an individual must

- (1) be either licensed in good standing or working as a supervisee under a board-approved supervisor as set out in AS 08.29;
- (2) have completed a minimum of six continuing education hours from a board-approved continuing education provider under 12 AAC 62.320(b)(2) pertaining to distance professional services; and
- (3) determine that the client is intellectually, emotionally, and physically capable of using distance professional services, and that the delivery method for providing distance professional services is appropriate for the client's needs.

(c) Repealed 2/2/2024.

(d) Except as provided under (h) of this section, an individual located in this state must be licensed under AS 08.29 before providing distance professional counseling service, regardless of the location of the client receiving the service.

(e) Before providing distance professional services, a licensee or supervisee must develop a safety plan with the client to identify local resources in the client's community should emergency care become necessary. The plan must identify an individual the client trusts who is available during distance professional services and include that individual's contact information.

(f) At the beginning of every distance professional services session, the licensee or supervisee must verify and document the client's identity in the progress note.

(g) When distance professional services are deemed inappropriate by the licensee, supervisee, or client, the licensee or supervisee must refer the client to a local health-care provider for in-person services. If the client refuses a referral to a local health-care provider for in-person services, the licensee or supervisee must document the rationale for continuing to provide distance professional services.

(h) An applicant working under a board-approved supervisor as set out in 12 AAC 62.200 must meet with the supervisor synchronously at least once every two weeks.

12 AAC 62.410. SAFETY AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF COMMUNICATIONS. (a) A licensee must comply with the requirements of 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164 regarding privacy, security, and breach for purposes of P.L. 104-191 (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996) for communication, including electronic communications and online scheduling. A licensee must notify the client if a communication is not confidential and limit electronic transmissions to general communications that are not client specific. A licensee must notify the client if online scheduling software is not encrypted and therefore may not be confidential.

(b) A licensee must discourage a client from texting personal information. A text message is considered a part of the client's record and must be kept in the client's file.

(c) A licensee must endeavor to protect clients from unwanted interruptions during distance professional services sessions.

12 AAC 62.420. INFORMED CONSENT. To provide distance professional services as the practice of professional counseling as defined under AS 08.29.490, a licensee shall ensure informed consent from a client. The informed consent must:

- (1) inform the client of who might have authorized or unauthorized access to electronic transmissions;
- (2) identify pertinent legal rights and limitations governing the licensee's practice over state lines or international boundaries;
- (3) inform clients if and for how long records are archived and maintained;
- (4) inform the client of emergency procedures, such as calling 911 or a local crisis hotline when the licensee is not available;
- (5) inform the client of the limits of confidentiality under AS 08.29.200;
- (6) identify, as applicable time zone differences, local customs, and cultural or language differences that might impact services delivery;
- (7) inform the client when distance professional services are not covered by insurance; and
- (8) fully disclose the licensee's licensing, credentials, and areas of expertise.
