GENERAL INFORMATION

The Out-of-State Permit expires on December 31st of odd numbered years, and may be renewed for upon receipt of a renewal application, including supporting documents, and payment of permit fees. Renewal applications will be sent to permit holders prior to the December 31st expiration date.

Out-of-State Permit Applications must include a copy of your authorization to operate as a legal entity in your resident state (i.e; a copy of the certificate of incorporation and articles of incorporation). Applicants must supply verification that the legal entity participates in a quality review program comparable to the program required of entities registered under AS 08.04.426. Please submit a copy of your most recent peer review acceptance letter (usually issued by the AICPA or your state society).

Employee Changes – If employees not listed on the application begin to provide services to Alaskan clients an updated list must be sent to the Board.

ARTICLE 3. REGULATION OF ACCOUNTANTS.

Sec. 08.04.421. Out-of-state permits and exemptions. (a) A legal entity that does not have an office in this state, that is authorized to practice public accounting in another state, and that performs designated functions for a client whose home office is located in this state may not engage in the practice of public accounting in this state unless the legal entity has an out-of-state permit. To obtain an out-of-state permit, the legal entity shall submit to the board

- (1) a written notice on a form provided by the board;
- (2) the fee required by the board;
- (3) verification of the current authorization of the legal entity to practice public accounting in the other state; and
- (4) verification that the legal entity participates in a quality review program comparable to the program required of entities registered under AS 08.04.426.

(b) A legal entity that performs designated services but not designated functions for a client whose home office is located in this state may engage in the practice of public accounting in this state under an out-of-state exemption if the legal entity

- (1) does not have an office in this state;
- (2) is authorized to practice public accounting in another state;
- (3) performs the designated services through an individual with a practice privilege; and
- (4) participates in a quality review program comparable to the program required under AS 08.04.426.

(c) A legal entity that does not have an office in this state, is authorized to practice public accounting in another state, and does not perform designated functions or designated services for a client whose home office is located in this state may engage in the practice of public accounting in this state under an out-of-state exemption if the services that the legal entity performs within the practice of public accounting are performed

(1) through an individual who has a practice privilege; and

(2) only to the extent that the legal entity can lawfully perform the services in the state where the individual with a practice privilege has the individual's principal place of business.

(d) If the board denies an out-of-state permit to a legal entity under (a) of this section, the board shall provide notice of the denial to the legal entity.

(e) Notwithstanding AS 08.01.100(b), the board shall establish by regulation the period for which an out-of-state permit authorized by (a) of this section is valid. However, the initial term of an out-of-state permit may not exceed three years. The board may renew an out-of-state permit and shall establish by regulation the terms for and length of a renewal, except that the length of a renewal for an out-of-state permit may not exceed four years.

(f) A legal entity who may engage in the practice of public accounting under an out-of-state exemption is not required to provide a notice to the board, pay a fee to the board, or submit documentation to the board. The person may engage in the practice of public accounting by mail, by telephone, by electronic means, or in person.

(g) In this section, "designated service" means

- (1) a review of a financial statement, if the performance of the review is established by the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services; or
- (2) a compilation service.

ARTICLE 3.

Sec. 08.04.422. Conditions of practice privileges, out-of-state permits, and out-of-state exemptions. An individual with a practice privilege who engages in the practice of public accounting in the state under the practice privilege, a legal entity with a permit or exemption under AS 08.04.421 who engages in the practice of public accounting in this state under the permit or exemption, and a legal entity that hires an individual with a practice privilege shall

- (1) consent to the personal and subject matter jurisdiction and disciplinary authority of the board;
- (2) agree to comply with this chapter, including the regulations adopted by the board;
- (3) agree that the individual or legal entity will stop offering to engage or engaging in the practice of public accounting, whether individually or on behalf of a legal entity, if the license from the state of the individual's or legal entity's principal place of business becomes invalid; and
- (4) consent to the appointment of the state board that issued the individual's license as the individual's or legal entity's agent for service of process in a court action or in another proceeding against the individual or legal entity that arises out of a transaction or an operation connected with or incidental to the individual's or legal entity's engagement in the practice of public accounting.
