3 AAC 304.465(b) is amended to read:

(b) State or nationally recognized organizations or associations that address the subject of responsible alcoholic beverage service may obtain approval of an alcohol server education course by making written application on forms provided by the board. The application must include the course book or digital materials to be provided to students, any video or audio presentations that will be used, the written or online test required under (d) of this section, detailed lesson plans, and a description of the qualifications of and training provided to course instructors. The application must identify the communities where the course will be presented and the frequency of the presentation. [THE APPLICANT SHALL EXPLAIN HOW RURAL PREMISES WILL BE SERVED UNDER (E) OF THIS SECTION.]

3 AAC 304.465(e) is repealed.

(e) Repealed ____/____/____.

3 AAC 304.465 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(m) A provider of an alcohol server education course may obtain approval from the board to provide its course to students in an Internet-based webinar or video teleconference format by making a request with an application required under (b) of this section. An Internet-based or video teleconference alcohol server education course provider shall:

(1) have a live instructor presenting the approved alcohol server course material and be available throughout the course to answer questions from students;

(2) check the identity of each student while maintaining confidentiality of personally identifiable information;

(3) provide a printable certificate of completion to each student who passes the written test required under (d) of this section to be used as temporary proof of completion until the student receives the course card described under (a) of this section;

(4) mail the course card within five business days from the date the student passed the test;

(5) certify that each instructor is an individual resident of the state of Alaska to ensure maintained knowledge of current alcoholic beverages statutes and regulations in the state;

(6) update the course material with any applicable changes to AS 04 and this chapter within 10 days of the effective date of the change; and

(7) provide a printable digital copy of the written course materials to each student.

3 AAC 304.465 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(n) If the alcohol server education course provider is a corporation or limited liability organization, the registered agent of the corporation or limited liability organization must be an individual resident of the state.
